

BLACKMAIL WAS THE CHARGE THAT CAUSED BAKER'S ARREST

Grand Jury Investigating and a Sensational Disclosure Likely.

MONEY FROM SALOON MEN

Demanding by the Man Who Claimed to Be a Deputy Sheriff.

CLAIMED TO HAVE INFORMATION

That Would Lead to Conviction, But Was Willing to Hush the Matter Up for $25—Arrested at Rogers. Waived a Hearing Here.

Attempts to extort hush money from East Liverpool saloon keepers have brought the alleged originator of the scheme into trouble and have also resulted in the attention of the grand jury being called to the matter.

A charge of blackmail was filed in the mayor's court by W. H. Thompson, A. R. Guthrie and Walter Bower against O. L. Baker, a former street car man here.

Baker was alleged to have secured money from several saloon keepers for "tipping them off" on the strength of being on the inside as to the proposed action of the grand jury this week.

The man is said to have valued his information at $25 to each saloonist, and J. C. Walsh, D. A. Devine, Walter Bower, A. R. Guthrie and J. W. Geon are alleged to have been approached.

The saloon men soon acquainted each other of the circumstances surrounding the very peculiar transaction, with the result that a consultation was held. Before anything could be decided upon, however, Baker had left town, and it was supposed he had gone to his home at Rogers.

The charge was filed on Sunday and Officers Davidson and Morris were detailed on the case. At 1:15 last night the officers left the city in a buggy for Rogers. Six hours later they had their man in custody and telephoned Mayor Davidson for instructions. They were told to bring Baker here and Officer Morris stopped off at Rogers, leaving Davidson to drive to this city with the prisoner. The officer had a rough trip, breaking a single-tree and the dash-board of the buggy and injuring one of the horses. The roads were almost impassable.

Officer Davidson arrived here this afternoon with his prisoner shortly after 1 p. m.

Baker was arraigned soon after noon and was very nervous. The affidavits charged that about April 9 Baker had gained an audience with each. He claimed they had violated the law and unless he was given $25 in each case he would furnish the necessary information to the grand jury to secure their conviction. The money was to be paid on or before April 11.

The documents were read separately and to each he pleaded not guilty. Baker waived a hearing and was promptly bound over to court in the sum of $500 in each case. He will be taken to Lisbon tomorrow.

Baker said after his arrest that he was a deputy sheriff. Coming to town in the buggy, he said Leonard would see him through. He is also said to have made the remark that other deputies in the past had done the same thing, and he did not see why he could not do it.

Sheriff Leonard, who followed the arrested man to town, denied that Baker was a deputy. He said he did not know the man and had never seen him before. He states that he considers Deputy Allison a man above reproach, but believes Baker was trying to take advantage of his acquaintance with Allison.

Prosecuting Attorney J. H. Brookes was seen just before he left for Lisbon this morning, and told a reporter that the matter would be thoroughly investigated by the grand jury, now in session at Lisbon. No stone will be left unturned that will tend to throw light upon the very grave situation.

The attention of the jurors was called to a current report that there has been an attempt to solicit hush money from saloonkeepers, and that a person or persons have been guilty of blackmail. ALL THEY ASKED AND MORE GIVEN

Rock Springs Street Car Men Get an Advance in Wages.

THE LIMIT 23 CENTS

Which Sum Will Be Paid to Men Who Have Worked Over Two Years. President Smith's Proposition Very Promptly Accepted.

One of the most largely attended meetings ever held by Division No. 52, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees, of this city, was held Saturday evening in chambers in the East End. The little room was crowded. The meeting was a special session held for the purpose of considering a proposition from President C. A. Smith, of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs Railway company in answer to a communication received from his street railway employees about a week ago, when an advance in their wages from 20 cents an hour to 22 cents was asked.

Being fair in all matters of this kind it seems that Mr. Smith went the motemen and conductors one better, and offered more money than was asked, granted 23 cents an hour.

The proposition of President Smith, as presented to the division, in substance was as follows: All first year men shall receive 20 cents an hour; two-year men shall receive 22 cents an hour; over two years the men shall receive 23 cents an hour. After the proposition of Mr. Smith had been placed in the hands of the committee of division No. 52 speedy action was deemed best. As a result President Kontner Saturday afternoon took a sealed vote upon the proposition as presented by Mr. Smith among the employees of the Rock Springs line, which showed matters to be entirely harmonious. The vote was opened at the meeting Saturday evening, which showed that the employees had accepted the proposition.

A committee composed of President Kontner, of Division No. 52, and Messrs. McKinnon, Williams and Allison, of the Rock Springs road, was appointed to call upon Mr. Smith today and have matters finally arranged, the committee having been given power to have a scale signed upon lines suggested by Mr. Smith.

The members of the local are loud in their praise for the manner they have been treated by Mr. Smith, and it is said that this is the first time any matter of grievance of the street railway employees has been settled before the time suggested by the local. In so doing, it is evidence that the street railway employees desire nothing but harmony and the same can be said upon the part of the street railway company.

Demanding by the Man Who Claimed to Be a Deputy Sheriff.

CLAIMED TO HAVE INFORMATION

That Would Lead to Conviction, But Was Willing to Hush the Matter
Up for $25—Arrested at Rogers.
Waived a Hearing Here.

Attempts to extort hush money from East Liverpool saloon keepers have brought the alleged originator of the scheme into trouble and have also resulted in the attention of the grand jury being called to the matter.

A charge of blackmail was filed in the mayor's court by W. H. Thompson, A. R. Guthrie and Walter Bower against O. L. Baker, a former street car man here.

Baker was alleged to have secured money from several saloon keepers for "tipping them off" on the strength of being on the inside as to the proposed action of the grand jury this week.

The man is said to have valued his information at $25 to each saloonist, and J. C. Walsh, D. A. Devine, Walter Bower, A. R. Guthrie and J. W. Geon are alleged to have been approached.

The saloon men soon acquainted each other of the circumstances surrounding the very peculiar transaction, with the result that a consultation was held. Before anything could be decided upon, however, Baker had left town, and it was supposed he had gone to his home at Rogers.

The charge was filed on Sunday and Officers Davidson and Morris were detailed on the case. At 1:15 last night the officers left the city in a buggy for Rogers. Six hours latter they had their man in custody and telephoned Mayor Davidson for instructions. They were told to bring Baker here and Officer Morris stopped off at Rogers, leaving Davidson to drive to this city with the prisoner. The officer had a rough trip, breaking a single-tree and the dash-board of the buggy and injuring one of the horses. The roads were almost impassable.

Officer Davidson arrived here this afternoon with his prisoner shortly after 1 p. m.

Baker was arraigned soon after noon and was very nervous. The affidavits charged that about April 9 Baker had gained an audience with cach. He claimed they had violated the law and unless he was given $25 in each case he would furnish the necessary information to the grand jury to secure their conviction. The money was to be paid on or before April 11.

The documents were read separatly and to each he pleaded not guilty.
Baker waived a hearing and was promptly bound over to court in the sum of $500 in each case. He will be taken to Lisbon tomorrow.

Baker said after his arrest that he was a deputy sheriff. Coming to town in the buggy, he said Leonard would see him through. He is also said to have made the remark that other deputies in the past had done the same thing, and he did not see why he could not do it.

Sheriff Leonard, who followed the arrested man to town, denied that Baker was a deputy. He said he did not know the man and had never seen him before. He states that he considers Deputy Allison a man above reproach, but believes Baker was trying to take advantage of his acquaintance with Allison.

Prosecuting Attorney J. H. Brookes was seen just before he left for Lisbon this morning, and told a reporter that the matter would be thoroughly investigated by the grand jury, now in session at Lisbon. No stone will be left unturned that will tend to throw light upon the very grave situ-

President Smith's Proposition
Very Promptly Accepted.

One of the most largely attended meetings ever held by Division No.
52, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees, of this city, was held Saturday evening in chambers in the East End. The little room was crowded. The meeting was a special session held for the purpose of considering a proposition from President C. A. Smith, of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs Railway company in answer to a communication received from his street railway employees about a week ago, when an advance in their wages from 20 cents an hour to 22 cents was asked.

Being fair in all matters of this kind it seems that Mr. Smith went the motormen and conductors one better, and offered more money than was asked, granted 23 cents an hour.

The proposition of President Smith, as presented to the division, in substance was as follows: All first year men shall receive 20 cents an hour; two-year men shall receive 22 cents an hour; over two years the men shall receive 23 cents an hour.
After the proposition of Mr. Smith had been placed in the hands of the committee of division No. 52, speedy action was deemed best. As a result President Kontner Saturday afternoon took a sealed vote upon the proposition as presented by Mr. Smith among the employees of the Rock Springs line, which showed matters to be entirely harmonious. The vote was opened at the meeting Saturday evening, which showed that the employees had accepted the proposition.

A committee composed of President Kontner, of Division No. 52, and Messrs. McKinnon, Williams and Allison, of the Rock Springs road, was appointed to call upon Mr. Smith today and have matters finally arranged, the committee having been given lines suggested by Mr. Smith.

The members of the local are loud in their praise for the manner they have been treated by Mr. Smith, and it is said that this is the first time

Quite a large representation of Kilnmen's local No. 9 attended the morning service at the M. P. church, where an interesting sermon was delivered by Rev. W. H. Gladden. The speaker took his text from Numbers marks to brotherhood and co-operation upon the part of the workmen and also the employer. He stated that the success of all things was due to a harmonious co-operation, and that genuine co-operation was Godlike.

There were about 125 members of the local present and for the occa-

MIKE O'MALLEY'S SALOON

Also Receives Police Attention And the Proprietor And Ten Others Are Taken Into Custody—It Costs
O'Malley $100 And the Others $10

Two raids and a number of drunks foot up the business of the local police court over Sunday.

Terry Carman's gambling room in Diamond alley was raided by Chief Thompson, Officers Dawson and Morris Saturday night, and 10 gamesters captured. The charge against the proprietor is that of keeping a gambling house, and those caught are charged with indulging in the play.
All were notified to call at police headquarters this afternoon.

Carman today appeared at the mayor's office and paid $50 and costs.
He also paid $10 and costs for each of the arrested visitors.

Mike O'Malley's saloon, Broadway, was doing a good business yesterday when Chief Thompson and Officers Dawson and Davidson appeared on the scene. The proprietor and ten loiterers were notified they would be expected before the mayor today. O'Malley paid $100 and costs, and those who were arrested at the same time are to appear tonight, when they will each be fined $10 and costs.

Officer Saulsberry arrested John Mullin Sunday night on a charge of drunkenness. He was fined $5.00, which he paid.

A charge of indecent exposure of person was placed against John Hesthis evening.

Patrolman Woods arrested Tom McKeever on the same old charge of drunkenness Sunday, and he will set-

Thomas Pierce was very drunk in the West End Saturday night and was taken in custody by Officer Saulsberry. A fine of $5.00 was imposed, but the old man will be kept in jail for a time in order to sober up.

Link Ormes and Dick Burrows, both colored, created a disturbance on the wharfbat last night, and a warrant was sworn out by Gus Martindill, proprietor of the wharfbat. Ormes paid $7.60 this morning and Burrows is expected to contribute a like sum.
The colored men say they will file charges against Martindill.

EAST END

BARTERING A CHILD

GYPSY WOMAN WANTED TO
TRADE OFF HER BABY.

Carried Little One In Sling—Eager
to Get Rid of It.

Can it be true that slavery is practiced among the band of gypsies which are now camped in the East End on property owned by Dr. William Calhoun? Saturday afternoon several women of this roaming band while canvassing the Klondike section called at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGaffick, and while there one of the women, carrying a two-weeks-old baby in a sling around her neck, offered to trade children with Mrs. McGaffick. Being a true American woman Mrs. McGaffick promptly ordered the gypsies out of her house, and was so amazed at the offer of the gypsy woman that she hardly knew what to say. Not only at this home has the offer been made to trade the little gypsy baby for an American child, but to others in this part of the city as well. It seems that the band have a desire to rid themselves of this little one, and an offer was made to a woman residing along Dry run, near the camp last Friday morning to take the baby home with her. Such acts have startled the residents of this portion of the city, and it is said that inasmuch as the band has been ordered off the property by Dr. Calhoun, that redress will be sought by the police. Such persons are a disgrace to any community, and the sooner they are driven from the city the better it will be for all concerned.

Should the band be allowed to remain in the city much longer it is hard to tell what crime they will commit.

A CARPENTER'S FALL

Struck a Rafter And Broke It And Was Painfully Injured.

Walter Blatter, a carpenter employed on the new addition being built to the East Liverpool porcelain works in the East End, was painfully injured on Saturday and it will be at least a week before he will be able to resume his duties.

He was working on a ladder when it slipped, causing him to fall to the uncovered rafters. He struck the rafters with his head and shoulder, breaking one of the rafters. He was removed to the home of J. J. Weisend on Maple street, where a physician was called. He is 24 years old and unmarried.

FELL INTO THE RIVER

A Nine-Year-Old East End Lad Has
a Narrow Escape From Drowning.

Vincent Burchett, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Burchett, of St. George street, met with an accident yesterday which came near resulting in his death. With several other small boys he was playing on a raft in the Ohio river near the foot of Mulberry street. In some manner the boy fell into the river, where the water was at least six feet deep.

He swam for the shore, and when about 20 feet from the landing several of his companions rescued him. He was then taken to his home, vowing never again to go near the river again.

STRUCK A WIRE FENCE

An East End Boy Gets a Bad Hurt
While at Play.

An accident happened Saturday afternoon to Earl Kidder, a son of Alonzo Kidder, of Elm street. Young Kidder with several other boys was playing in the street and in running he collided with a wire fence, causing a deep cut on his forehead. He will be unable to be out for several days.

A Policeman Needed.

Much complaint was heard in the East End this morning over the actions of four men yesterday afternoon. One of the men was colored, and all were under the influence of liquor. There were quite a number of people in Oakland yesterday being drawn there by the gypsy camp, and the women there were subjected to all sorts of insults. That the East End needs a regularly employed roundsman there is no doubt.

A Social Tonight.

The Oakland Athletic club will give a box social at Columbian park this evening, and from the proceeds will be purchased uniforms for the baseball club this association will have the coming summer. The attendance promises to be large.

Miss Pearl Calvert, who has been suffering with an attack of congestion of the lungs for the past two weeks, is still confined to her home on Mulberry street, East End. Her speedy recovery is hoped for by her many friends.

Sold Her House.

Mrs. Bert Wallover, of the East End, has sold her two-story frame residence at Glasgow to Hugh McFall, of East Liverpool. The consideration is said to have been $1,250. Mr. McFall will occupy the residence at once.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Miss Pearl Finley, of the East End, who has been critically ill for some time, was reported much improved this morning.

Postmaster Will Baird, who has been suffering with a severe attack of the grip for some time, was able to leave his bed yesterday.

Mrs. Archie Searight, who has been ill at her home on Pennsylvania avenue for several days, is recovering, and will be able to be out in a short time.

The Junior superintendents of the Second Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Miss Florence Hill, on St. George street, tomorrow evening, for the purpose of talking over matters pertaining to junior work.

The trustees of the Second M. E. church will meet at the church tomorrow evening for the purpose of talking over matters concerning the erection of the new parsonage.

AFTER COAL TERRITORY

Big Companies Are Seeking Leases
In Vicinity of Teegarden.

Salem, Apr. 14.—There is a big fight for coal territory going on at present a few miles south of this city. Three big coal companies are after about 1000 acres of coal land between Franklin Square and Teegarden. The fight is growing quite interesting and prices for coal land are growing higher. Card & Prosser, of Lisbon, have secured a lease for 250 acres of coal land between Long's Crossing and Teegarden. It is the intention to open a large mine on the territory leased, this summer. A large number of men will be employed.

The Lisbon Coal company, in which the Osbornes, of Cleveland, are interested, has been after the territory for some time, but as yet has not been successful in obtaining any options or leases. Another large Cleveland coal company is after some land in that section.

To Open a New Mine.

Salem, Apr. 14.—The Columbian Fire Clay company is about to open a large coal mine near Washingtonville on the Salem railway. The plant will cost over $10,000. The company will control over 500 acres of land and employ over 100 miners. The Salem railroad will have to get another engine to handle the traffic.

Crispi's Narrow Escape.

The Courier des Etats Unis says that on Jan. 14, 1858, the late Francesco Crispi, the great Italian statesman, then a political refugee in Paris, received from an Italian friend connected with the Paris opera two gallery tickets for the performance of that evening, which the emperor and empress were expected to attend. Crispi and his wife were on the point of starting for the theater when the latter exclaimed, "Francesco, where shall we get a candle?"

They were in such destitution that they had neither candles nor matches nor yet the wherewithal to buy them. Going to the opera would involve groping for their room at midnight and going to bed in total darkness. Too proud to confess their condition and to borrow a few sous, they regretfully denied themselves the promised treat, remained in their room and retired before the twilight had faded.

On the following morning they learned of Orsini's attack on the emperor, the police raids and the arrest of all Italian revolutionists found in or near the theater. If Crispi had been in the house, he would certainly have been among the first arrested, for he was known as an ardent disciple of Mazzini.

"The proper command is 'Column, forward!' The general didn't know this, and he waved his sword in the air and yelled 'Column!' Not a man moved. The general had a voice you could hear half a mile. He stood up in his stirrups and yelled again, 'Column!' Still there was no move. Then he turned his horse and dashed back to the soldiers.

"What's the matter?" he shouted, so loud that everybody on the parade ground could hear him. 'Can't you understand when I give a command? Column! Column! I'll spell it for you. You idiots—C-o-l-u-m-n!'"

TALMAGE IS NO MORE

Foremost American Preacher
Succumbs to Inflammation
of the Brain.

WAS IN POOR HEALTH FOR WEEKS

Noted Divine in Youth Intended to Become a Lawyer, but Soon Turned to the Ministry and Early Achieved Fame—Sketch of His Career.

Washington, April 14.—The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, the Presbyterian divine, died last Saturday night at 3 o'clock at his residence in this city. He had been in poor health for six weeks, suffering from influenza and serious catarrhal conditions. The immediate cause of death was inflammation of the brain. He had not been rational since the middle of last week. The patient's life passed away so quietly that even the members of the family about his bedside hardly knew that he had gone.

Dr. Talmage had been married three times, his last bride being Mrs. Eleanor McCutcheon-Collier, a widow, whom he married in Allegheny, Pa., over four years ago. Besides Mrs. Talmage, other members of his family at the deathbed were: The Rev. Frank DeWitt Talmage, Chicago; Mrs. Warren G. Smith, Brooklyn; Mrs. Daniel Mangum, Brooklyn; Mrs. Allen E. Donnan, Richmond; Mrs. Clarence Wyckoff and Miss Talmage, Washington.

Arrangements were completed yesterday for the funeral services over the remains of Dr. Talmage. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the Church of the Covenant, this city. There will be no funeral sermon, but short addresses concerning the life and works of Dr. Talmage will be made by men who have been intimately associated with him. At 9 o'clock Wednesday morning the interment will take place in the family lot at Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn.

Silent tribute to the memory of Dr. Talmage was paid yesterday by thousands of people who walked past the residence on Massachusetts avenue. Messages of sympathy from nearly every state in the Union, and from England, Russia and other European countries, came to the family during the day.

Had Wonderful Popularity.

Dr. Talmage was beyond a doubt the most popular preacher America has produced. When he had a church his congregations were as enormous as those of Henry Ward Beecher, and he at the same time addressed another congregation of millions through the newspapers. When he was preaching in Brooklyn there was no necessity of a stranger asking where Dr. Talmage's church was; all he had to do was to follow the crowd. For many years his sermons were preached both from the pulpit and through the newspapers, but after he gave up his pulpit in Washington the great divine spoke to his flock wholly through the public press, and there was hardly a town in the United States where his sermon in the daily or weekly newspaper was not eagerly awaited by scores of people. It is probably no exaggeration to state that his sermon was read each week by several millions of people. It appeared in at least six languages, and the combined circulations of the newspapers printing his sermons were estimated at 30,000,000.

Few men were capable of doing as much literary work in a day as the famous preacher. When nearing three-score and ten he often dictated as many as 20,000 words in a day, and on many occasions he has worn out two or three stenographers during that time. His sermons were all first preached to a stenographer, and when he was in the throes of composition he walked tirelessly up and down his study preaching and gestulating exactly as he did later in the pulpit and almost with as great rapidity. Each week he read thoroughly between fifty and a hundred papers, wrote the editorials for his religious weekly, The Christian Herald, dictated sermons, correspondence, letters and books, saw scores of friends, business callers, admirers, cranks and imposters, and during his lecture season lectured at least once a year in most of the large and many of the small cities of the country.

He once tried dictating his sermons to a phonograph, but, as walking about the room was practically a necessity and as he could not very well carry the machine with him, he abandoned the scheme. He often said that in all his life he had never written a line or spoken a word with the aid of a stimulant. At one time he was a habitual smoker, but ceased one day with a sudden resolution that was typical of his whole life.

A New Jerseyman by Birth.

Dr. Talmage was born in Bound Brook, Somerset county, N. J., Jan. 7, 1832. His home was a small farm, and he was the youngest son of a family of 12 children. His parents were deeply religious people, and their greatest desire was to see some of their sons enter the ministry. Their hopes were fulfilled, for the eldest brother at the close of his college life went to China as a missionary, while another became a minister. Dr. Talmage himself entered law, but his parents never ceased to hope that he would eventually follow in the footsteps of his brothers. In 1853 he gave up legal practice and went to the college at New Brunswick to prepare for the ministry.

His first charge was at Belleville, N. J., where he spent three years. He then accepted a call to a church at Syracuse, N. Y., and remained there until 1862, when he accepted a pastorate in Philadelphia. This gave him his first chance at reaching the people of a great city. His success was instantaneous, and he finally received three simultaneous calls from Brooklyn, Chicago and San Francisco. Though the church which had called him to Brooklyn boasted only 17 members, he chose that city, and the result of his choice is well known. Within a year it was necessary to erect a structure capable of holding 3,000 people. Two years later this church was burned to the ground.

An edifice that would seat 5,000 was then built, but was inadequate to accommodate the thousands that flocked to hear the famous preacher. For 15 years the church had wonderful prosperity, which was rudely broken by a second fire that laid it in ashes. Undismayed, a third tabernacle was built. It was completed in 1891, and its dedication was a great public occasion.

The Third Fire.

This tabernacle was a grand and beautiful place of worship, with a vast seating capacity and perfect acoustic properties, but it was not destined to stand long. On Sunday, May 13, 1894, shortly after the close of the morning services, fire broke out and before it was under control had left the magnificent building a pile of smoking ruins.

Dr. Talmage for a time ceased active pastoral work and went abroad for a tour of the world. He preached to large audiences in Australia, New Zealand, India and Great Britain, and on his return wrote the story of his travels in a book called "The Earth Girdled," which enjoyed a wide circulation. He now devoted himself almost exclusively to his editorial work on The Christian Herald, his sermons being syndicated for weekly publication. In 1895 Dr. Talmage accepted for a time a pastoral call from the First Presbyterian church in Washington and was soon the most popular minister at the national capital. In 1900 he retired from active connection with the Washington church and devoted his time to editorial work, preaching and lecturing. The passing years served to increase his fame, and an announcement that he was going to preach always attracted a large audience.

Dr. Talmage was a voluminous writer on religious subjects. He was the author of a number of lectures, and his sermons have been published in 30 volumes. Among the better known of his works were "From Manger to Throne," "Sparks From My Anvil," "Crumbs Swept Up," "Sports That Kill," "Night Sides of City Life," "The Poetry of Life" and "Old Wells Dug Out." It is estimated that for many years his royalties netted him the princely income of $20,000 a year.

Evidence is not wanting that the order recently issued by the street commissioner requiring property owners to clean up the streets and alleys surrounding their premises is being obeyed only to a slight extent, if at all. The cold and stormy weather would probably be the excuse, if one were sought. Certain it is that the city, instead of becoming cleaner, is day by day becoming dirtier—disgracefully filthy in spots and almost everywhere untidy. The street that does not contain heaps of rubbish or other unsightly objects that ought not to be there is the exception rather than the rule. As for paper—which, by an ordinance, every person is forbidden to throw into the street—the town looks as if a large portion of the inhabitants were trying to see how much litter they could make. A few arrests and convictions for defying the law and making the streets a dumping ground for this sort of waste material might result in some regard for the ordinance as well as for cleanliness. The experiment ought to be tried. Dirty streets are discreditable as well as a menace to health. There is a remedy for existing conditions, and it should be applied.

Dr. Talmage, undoubtedly the best known minister in America, is dead. Not since Henry Ward Beecher's time has there been a preacher of the gospel whose name was a household word throughout the land and whose pulpit utterances were so widely read. He had not Beecher's culture and eloquence, but he was a mighty man just the same. He had a vigorous command of language, and he believed in calling a spade a spade. His popularity was largely due to the fact that he discussed questions of everyday life—such as every person is called upon at some time or other to solve—as well as public and popular issues. He probably preached to more people than any other man that ever lived. For he not only spoke and lectured regularly to large audiences, but understanding fully the value of the press, he preached regularly to millions of people through thousands of newspapers, daily and weekly, small and large. A man so widely known naturally had enemies, but his admirers outnumbered them thousands to one. His death leaves more than a vacant pulpit. It is a vacancy in the religious world, with no successor now in sight to fill the place.

Governor Nash has designated April 18 as Arbor Day. All public schools are requested to devote two hours of the day to the interests of forestry. Property owners ought to devote many times that number of hours to tree planting each spring, if they have lots capable of being beautified by the addition of shade or fruit trees. Not only Arbor Day but many of the dates of which land owners can fix for themselves, should be observed. There is no finer natural object than a handsome tree, and the cultivation of trees both for useful and ornamental purposes does not receive half the attention that it merits.

Even the bellicose Kruger is ready to give up, if one may judge from his remark that it is "not for the Boer representatives in Europe, sheltered from danger, to be more warlike than those fighting."

King Alfonso is reported to be jealous of King Edward. Yet the latter would doubtless be glad to give half of his years and half of his weight to Alf if it were possible.

It is reported that scores of mule dealers in Missouri were seized with nervous prostration on hearing the report that the Boers were moving for peace.

Santos Dumont says America is the greatest country on earth. He can't attract attention without his flying machine unless he tells us something new.

Henry Watterson remarks that the Republican party is at sea. But isn't it sailing grandly?

POTTERY NEWS

An English pottery worker, who recently came to this city, and who expects to make his home here, gave the following account of how the English operative works: "They work differently in this country from the English. The American operative has the best of the English workman in many ways. Over there the operative is not paid for any ware with the exception of that which 'comes good from the kiln.' A list is kept by the firm of what ware is placed by the kilnman, and if there is anything wrong with the ware after it comes from the kiln, the cause is easily traced. In America nothing of this sort is done. When the ware is placed in the green house in good order, there it ends as far as the maker is concerned. There is no 'keeping tab' on the kilnmen, and the clay worker suffers no loss after the ware is counted. These ways are new to workmen who come here and secure positions."

The non-payment of board bills at New Cumberland has caused no end of talk among the employes of the Chelsea. In speaking of the state of affairs an employe of the plant said: "I think there should be some steps taken by the potters to do away with the continuous thing of 'board bill jumpers.' It seems to me there should be a law passed by the Brotherhood compelling a man to pay such bills as these at least for the good of the good of the trade. People of this kind are the cause of us getting the name of 'bum potters.'"

Trade is reported to have been slower at a majority of the potteries last week than at any time during the past month. Stocks are accumulating heavily at some of the plants. One manufacturer said that his general stock was now sufficient for a ninety day trade on the basis of last month's volume, and the only necessity of operating his plant now was to make matchings and maintain assortments.

Papers have been sent to Columbus for the incorporation of the L. W. Camp company, of Akron. The company is composed of L. W. Camp, R. E. Armstrong, T. W. Miller, Amelia Camp and Grace C. Armstrong. It will be capitalized at $100,000. The company has purchased land for the erection of a big clay plant and will begin its erection at once.

Not one piece of ware that is being made at the Union is being placed in stock. As soon as it is taken from the glost kiln it is taken to the ware room, where, after it is dressed it is pushed into the packing shed and shipped. It has been a long time since any ware has been placed in the stock room on the upper floors at the plant.

A Ford City operative says: "I think if the convention will enforce the 10 hour law it will be a great good to the potters. The eight-hour movement is all right, but it would be too hard to jump from the present system of working and come down to eight hours. Let's make ten hours a success first."

J. E. Smith, of the glost department at Laughlin No. 2, who has secured the position as bench boss at the new Barberton pottery, has about completed the formation of his crew. It is announced that a number of kilnmen at the East End potteries will soon be located at Barberton.

The Monument Pottery company, of Trenton, has given Lewis Lawton the contract for an addition to its plant to cost $70,000. John Barlow has been awarded a contract by the Trenton Potteries company for the building of an addition to the Ideal pottery to cost $2,400.

W. P. Brown, a popular salesman of the Dresden, who has been in the east for several weeks, has returned to the city. Mr. Brown states he had a successful trip, and that orders were being placed more freely now than for some time. He will go out again in a short time.

The Chelsea is running more steadily than at any time since it was started. It makes quite a change on the men with everything working smooth. They are in better spirits, and there is no grumbling on account of short time.

Collections by the potters are said to be slow. The condition has been growing for some time, until now the complaint is becoming quite general. Merchants plead poor retail trade and bad collections from their patrons.

The Shenango, New Castle, packed and shipped its first car of ware April 2. It went to New York. Their first kiln of decorated ware was placed last week. The superintendent of the decorating department is Mrs. Julian.

The printers and trainfersers, No. 22, will receive a number of new members into the organization at its next Kilnmen's local No. 17 met in Brotherhood hall Saturday evening, but from some unknown cause the attendance was quite small. There was no important business transacted, only business of a routine nature being talked over.

While placing a kiln at the International pottery, at Trenton, James W. Kirkham, well known here, slipped and fell from the ladder on which he was working. His left shoulder was dislocated.

Fred Coxen, brother of Theodore Coxen, who died at Tiffin a short time ago, has been selected as manager of the Great Western plant at Tiffin. Mr. Coxen is quite a young man.

J. P. Judge has returned to work as a printer at the Globe, after being unable to work for almost two months on account of an injury sustained to his leg in a football game.

There is no kick from the workmen at the D. E. McNicol on account of work being slow. Every department in this pottery is running full time, and orders are brisk.

Harry Davis, a kilnman at the French China, Sebring, had his hand badly mashed recently, necessitating a lay-off of several days.

G. W. Menough has resumed his duties as bench boss at the Goodwin, after being ill for two weeks.

James Ward, of this city, has taken a position as a finisher at the French China, at Sebring.

AT THE THEATER

One of the largest houses of the season Saturday evening witnessed the presentation for the first time in this city of "The Telephone Girl," a musical comedy in two acts. In some respects the comedy was weak, but some of the members of the company made atonement for this. Miss Mabel Hite and Winfield Douglas were the main features in the production, and they were well received.

POTTERY NEWS

An English pottery worker, who recently came to this city, and who expects to make his home here, gave the following account of how the English operative works: "They work differently in this country from the English. The American operative has the best of the English workman in many ways. Over there the operative is not paid for any ware with the exception of that which 'comes good from the kiln.' A list is kept by the firm of what ware is placed by the kilnman, and if there is anything wrong with the ware after it comes from the kiln, the cause is easily traced. In America nothing of this sort is done. When the ware is placed in the green house in good order, there it ends as far as the maker is concerned. There is no 'keeping tab' on the kilnman, and the clay worker suffers no loss after the ware is counted. These ways are new to workmen who come here and secure positions."

The non-payment of board bills at New Cumberland has caused no end of talk among the employees of the Chelsea. In speaking of the state of affairs an employee of the plant said: "I think there should be some steps taken by the potters to do away with the continuous thing of 'board bill jumpers.' It seems to me there should be a law passed by the Brotherhood compelling a man to pay such bills as these at least for the good of the good of the trade. People of this kind are the cause of us getting the name of 'bum potters.'"

Trade is reported to have been slower at a majority of the potteries last week than at any time during the past month. Stocks are accumulating heavily at some of the plants. One manufacturer said that his general stock was now sufficient for a ninety day trade on the basis of last month's volume, and the only necessity of operating his plant now was to make matchings and maintain assortments.

Papers have been sent to Columbus for the incorporation of the L. W. Camp company, of Akron. The company is composed of L. W. Camp, R. E. Armstrong, T. W. Miller, Amelia Camp and Grace C. Armstrong. It will be capitalized at $100,000. The company has purchased land for the erection of a big clay plant and will begin its erection at once.

Not one piece of ware that is being made at the Union is being placed in stock. As soon as it is taken from the glost kiln it is taken to the ware room, where, after it is dressed it is pushed into the packing shed and shipped. It has been a long time since any ware has been placed in the stock room on the upper floors at the plant.

A Ford City operative says: "I think if the convention will enforce the 10 hour law it will be a great good to the potters. The eight-hour movement is all right, but it would be too hard to jump from the present system of working and come down to eight hours. Let's make ten hours a success first."

J. E. Smith, of the glost department at Laughlin No. 2, who has secured the position as bench boss at the new Barberton pottery, has about completed the formation of his crew. It is announced that a number of kilnmen at the East End potteries will soon be located at Barberton.

The Monument Pottery company, of Trenton, has given Lewis Lawton the contract for an addition to its plant to cost $70,000. John Barlow has been awarded a contract by the Trenton Potteries company for the building of an addition to the Ideal pottery to cost $2,400.

W. P. Brown, a popular salesman of the Dresden, who has been in the east for several weeks, has returned to the city. Mr. Brown states he had a successful trip, and that orders were being placed more freely now than for some time. He will go out again in a short time.

The Chelsea is running more steadily than at any time since it was started. It makes quite a change on the men with everything working smooth. They are in better spirits, and there is no grumbling on account of short time.

Collections by the potters are said to be slow. The condition has been growing for some time, until now the complaint is becoming quite general. Merchants plead poor retail trade and bad collections from their patrons.

The Shenango, New Castle, packed and shipped its first car of ware April 2. It went to New York. Their first kiln of decorated ware was placed last week. The superintendent of the decorating department is Mrs. Julian.

The printers and transfers, No. 22, will receive a number of new members into the organization at its next

ANOTHER ELECTION

May Be Necessary to Settle the Fourth Ward Assessorship.

Considerable discussion has arisen among Fourth ward residents recently concerning the assessorship in that ward.

Howard Bowers, an aspirant for the office at the last election makes the assertion that he has discovered that his successful opponent, A. R. Kiddy, who was elected assessor, and has had his bond accepted and approved, is not a resident of the ward and did not reside within its limits at the time he was elected, making Kiddy, therefore, not eligible to hold the position.

Bowers claims that steps will be taken to have the position declared vacant, while Kiddy is making a hard fight to prove his eligibility.

It is thought that the matter will terminate in the latter's favor, although it may be necessary to hold another election in that ward.

On Sunday morning the mayor received a telephone call from residents in the West End who made complaint about two men who were using profane language on the street, both having partaken of an overdose of whiskey. Officers Thorn and Taylor investigated and brought the men to the city building where they now are. Their names are William Smith and Peter Morrissey, both of this city. They will be given a hearing today.

SOUTH SIDE FOUND IN THE RIVER

A BODY SUPPOSED TO BE THAT OF FRANK PARKERSON.

He Was a Lather And Had Worked in Chester And East Liverpool.

The body of a dead man was found floating in the Ohio river near Arroyo on Saturday morning. The body appears to be that of a man about 28 years of age, and was dressed in a dark suit of clothes. The only identification found was a letter in a pocket of his coat bearing the heading of the National Wood, Wire and Metal Lathers' international union at East Liverpool, bearing the date of December 3, 1901, which read as follows:

Permit Frank Parkerson to work until further notice. John J. Marshall, Secretary Local No. 58, National Wood, Wire And Metal Lathers' international union, East Liverpool.

A man by this name formerly lived in Chester and worked there and in East Liverpool, but some time ago moved to New Cumberland, and is believed by Chester people to be the man that was drowned.

THE FERRY LANDING

Now the issue Between Goucher And Johnston, of Congo.

Although a franchise has been granted to Samuel B. Goucher to operate and maintain a steam ferry between Congo and Wellsville, Goucher is now having considerable trouble in finding a suitable landing place on the West Virginia side of the river.

About 30 years ago a franchise for an unlimited period was granted to W. S. Johnston, of Congo, to operate a steam ferry between the two towns, Johnston having purchased the landing places on both sides of the river. Ten years ago Johnston sold the landing place on the Wellsville side of the river to the Pennsylvania Railroad company, reserving the right to land his ferry boat at the same place. Johnston still owns the landing place on the West Virginia side and will not, under any consideration, sell or lease to Goucher unless he pays an exceedingly high price for it. The place owned by Johnston seems to be the only suitable landing for a ferry in Congo and unless Johnston agrees to give up the land Goucher will have to take a back seat.

It is thought that the property can be purchased from Johnston if enough is offered. Johnston has stated that he will not allow Goucher to land on his property unless it is purchased from him.

Two of the brakes will be sent to the Chester barn within two weeks, and will be placed on summer cars. Motormen will then be instructed, at least those who have not had experience in handling the device. The new appliance will be attached to all cars on the line.

Young Men Born Rich Handicapped For Success

By United States Senator CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW

THE YOUNG MAN WHO IS BORN RICH IS SERIOUSLY HANDICAPPED FOR SUCCESS IN LIFE. He hasn't the spur of necessity, and unless he is peculiarly trained and more than ordinarily organized he has little ambition. The world is too easy for him. Its temptations are about him on every side with bad habits which make him worthless, or laziness or idleness which makes him useless. Of course, there are a few sons of rich men who have successes in life, but they are so exceptional their cases are very marked and remarked.

On the other hand, by being born poor I do not mean extreme poverty. Granted that with the advantages of the public schools the boy's parents can give him a first class education and then he has to make his own career, the spur of necessity will arouse every faculty which helps make success. With moderate success comes ambition, and as his spheres of activity enlarge he acquires a sense of power. He learns the value of temperance and character. He knows by experience that health and industry can accomplish almost anything and carry its possessor almost anywhere. As he grows in position, wealth and influence he is the more thankful every day for the condition which compelled him to do his mightiest or drop out of sight.

TAKE A NUMBER OF YOUNG MEN WHO ARE BORN RICH, AND IF THE STATISTICS WERE AVAILABLE AND IT COULD BE FOUND HOW MANY OF THEM REACHED SIXTY AND HOW MANY IN PROPORTION ACCOMPLISHED ANYTHING FOR THEMSELVES OR FOR THE WORLD THE STORY WOULD BE A GHASTLY ONE OF UNTIMELY ENDS OR FAILURES IN LIFE.

On the other hand, the vast majority of those who start under the conditions that I have mentioned live long and prosper. From their number come those who move the world and govern it, who are its masters in business enterprises, its leaders in the professions, its statesmen and rulers, its men of thought and of action.

SCIENTIFIC TORTURERS.

Some of the Cruelties That Are Perpetrated in Vivisection.

A certain Dr. Casten, wishing to study the effect of massage upon dislocations, deliberately dislocated the limbs of numerous dogs, says Henry C. Merwin in The Atlantic. He published an account of all these experiments, and the following is a fair example of them: "Experiment 8. Poodle dog . . . replaced on the table without chloral. I dislocate his two shoulders. The animal utters screams of suffering. I hold him for twenty minutes with his two shoulders dislocated and the elbows tied together behind his back . . ."

"Dr. Majendie," relates Dr. Elliston, "in one of his barbarous experiments which I am ashamed to say, I witnessed, began by cutting out a large round piece from the back of a beautiful little puppy."

Majendie may have been by nature a brutal man, but even he would hardly have done that when he was young in vivisection. . . . In this country we are not quite so cruel as the French or Italians, but we are more cruel than the English, more cruel perhaps than the Germans.

A medical man in Jersey City published an account of some experiments which he made upon dogs—I will not shock the reader by describing them—and of this publication the British Medical Journal of Nov. 15, 1891, said, "It is a record of the most wanton and the stupidest cruelty we have ever seen chronicled under the guise of scientific experiments."

He published an account of all these experiments, and the following is a fair example of them: "Experiment 8. Poodle dog  replaced on the table without chloral. I dislocate his two shoulders. The animal utters screams of suffering. I hold him for twenty minutes with his two shoulders dislocated and the elbows tied together behind his back ***"

"Dr. Majendie," relates Dr. Elliston, "in one of his barbarous experiments which, I am ashamed to say, I witnessed, began by cutting out a large round piece from the back of a beautiful little puppy."

Majendie may have been by nature a brutal man, but even he would hardly have done that when he was young in vivisection.  In this country we are not quite so cruel as the French or Italians, but we are more cruel than the English, more cruel perhaps than the Germans.

A medical man in Jersey City published an account of some experiments which he made upon dogs—I will not shock the reader by describing them—and of this publication the British Medical Journal of Nov. 15, 1891, said, "It is a record of the most wanton and the stupidest cruelty we have ever seen chronicled under the guise of scientific experiments."

The Light on the Isle of Pharos.

The most famous lighthouse of antiquity stood on the Isle of Pharos, off the city of Alexandria, in Egypt. It was one of the seven wonders of the world and was put up during the reign of Ptolemy Philadelphus. After standing up 1,600 years it was destroyed by an earthquake. It is understood to have been over 500 feet high.

A Clever Retort.

A legal dignitary who had risen from a humble rank of life was twitted by an opponent for "having begun life as a barber's boy." "It is true that I did so," was the answer, "and if you had begun in a similar station you would have remained there till the present day."

WOMEN FOULLY SLAIN

Aged Mother and Middle-Aged Daughter Shot by an Unknown Party.

STEPSON IS UNDER ARREST.

Blood Spots Found on His Trousers. His Father's Will Left the Bulk of the Estate to the Murdered Women. Prisoner's Suspicious Actions.

Cleveland, April 14.—Mrs. Martha J. Calhoun, aged 75, and her daughter, Mrs. Vaughn, aged 46, were shot and killed yesterday morning by, as yet, an unknown party, two miles east of Mantua station, a village 44 miles southeast of this city. Will Vaughn, a stepson of the younger woman, is locked up in Ravenna jail, charged with the crimes because of circumstances which are alleged to incriminate him. Mrs. Vaughn was shot five times in the head, the sixth bullet of a revolver ending the life of her mother.

No one but the murderer saw the crimes committed, and when the dead bodies of the two women were found there was intense excitement in the little village. The body of Mrs. Vaughn was found in the kitchen of her home, lying in a pool of blood, and that of Mrs. Calhoun in an adjoining room, crouched in a corner with her hand before her face, as if in self-defense. There was a bullet hole in her left temple.

Because of the suspicious actions of Will Vaughn the authorities arrested him and took him to Ravenna jail. What are believed to be blood spots were found on his trousers. These Will Vaughn says came from a cut finger. Vaughn's father died a few days ago, and it is said he left the bulk of his estate to the two women. Vaughn was not a member of his father's household, living alone quite secluded from his neighbors in a house a quarter of a mile from his father's home.

SHOT TO DEATH BY BURGLARS.

Miner Killed for Alarming Boarding Boss, Who Also Is Seriously Injured.

Mahanoy City, Pa., April 14.—Seven masked burglars, in an encounter in a boarding house near the Gilberton colliery, yesterday morning, killed Wasi Talco, aged 35 years, shot and slightly wounded Mrs. George Bernitz, his boarding mistress, and clubbed her husband so badly that he is in a serious condition.

The battle with the burglars occurred at about 2 a. m., shortly after Talco returned from the coal mines. While he was preparing to retire the seven men burst into his room and commanded him to keep silent. He disobeyed them and began yelling for help, at which one of the masked men shot him through the head and he fell dead. Hearing the noise, Bernitz and his wife entered the room to see what was wrong. The two were instantly seized, and in the struggle Mrs. Bernitz received a slight bullet wound in the cheek and her husband was pounded into submission.

Several of the burglars then ransacked the house, while the others stood guard over the husband and wife. Three trunks were burst open, and savings amounting to a few hundred dollars and two watches were taken by the men. All of them escaped.

Memphis Mystery Cleared.

Memphis, Tenn., April 14.—The mystery surrounding the killing of A. T. Sharpe, a traveling man of Detroit, on a crowded street Saturday night, was cleared up last night, when Lacy Chase, a young man well known in Memphis, surrendered to the police. Chase claims that in an altercation with Sharpe the latter knocked him down, whereupon he drew his knife and cut Sharpe several times. Chase was jailed.

HOPE FOR PEACE INCREASES.

Midnight Cabinet Conference and Other Signs Buooy Up Hearts of the British.

London, April 14.—The announcement of the presence at Pretoria of the Orange Free State and Transvaal leaders and generals who have been at Klerksdorp considering terms of peace has caused a decided increase in the hopefulness of the public concerning the possibilities of peace.

A conference of members of the cabinet was held Saturday midnight in Mr. Chamberlain's house. Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Brodrick, the war secretary; Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the chancellor of the exchequer, and the Duke of Devonshire, president of the council, were present. The conference terminated at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, and yesterday Mr. Chamberlain and several of the colonial officials were in their offices. Messages passed between them and Sir Michael Hicks-Beach at his residence. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Chamberlain was with King Edward for two hours. The fact that Sir Michael Hicks-Beach was engaged in his office nearly all of yesterday is taken in some quarters to indicate a modification of the budget statement.

CUBAN RECIPROCITY TEST.

Fight Will Be Over the Differential on Refined Sugar.

Washington, April 14.—The leaders of the house expect to see the Cuban reciprocity bill passed during the present week, but they admit the debate will be prolonged so that the final vote will not be reached until next week. When the measure is thrown open for amendment under the five-minute rule a great number of amendments will be offered by the Democrats, with a view to opening up a way for amending the schedules of the Dingley tariff law. It is known that all such amendments will be held to be not germane. Appeals will be taken from the chair's rulings, but it is certain that with possibly one exception the appeals will be unsuccessful. That exception may be the amendment to take the differential off refined sugar. The real fight will come on that amendment. A number of Republicans who are opposing the bill have announced that they will vote to overrule the chair on that proposition, and the Democrats expect to cast a solid vote for it. The Republican opposition to the bill as shown last Tuesday on the motion to go into committee of the whole is in the neighborhood of 40. Added to the Democratic vote, if solidly cast, the opposition would have a clear majority of 10. If the danger involved in the amendment to abolish the differential is passed, the bill will have plain sailing on final passage, as a majority of the Democrats will vote for it.

The senate on Wednesday will vote on the Chinese exclusion bill, and the present understanding is that the Philippine government bill will be taken up immediately afterward. It is probable, however, that the Philippine bill will be soon broken in on by the calling up of the river and harbor bill. Being an appropriation bill, that is a privileged measure and can be taken up at any time, but it is not the desire of the committee to have it considered until there shall be a chance afforded to make further amendments in the committee. That opportunity will not be provided until Thursday, following the vote on the Chinese bill.

FIGHT OVER POOL ROOMS.

W. & J. Professors Clash Over Allowing Students to Frequent Them.

Washington, Pa., April 14.—For some time the students of Washington and Jefferson academy, who are allowed the privilege of the town on Saturdays, have been frequenting pool rooms in various parts of Washington. The faculty learned of this, and forbade any of the students to visit any pool or billiard room in the city. The managers of the various pool rooms in Washington have been notified not to allow any students of the academy to enter their rooms. Some of the professors are in favor of allowing the boys the freedom of the pool rooms, and there is a fight on in the faculty as a result.

Mitchell at Punxsutawney.

Punxsutawney, Pa., April 14.—President Mitchell and Secretary Wilson, of the United Mine Workers of America, arrived here yesterday for the purpose of conferring with the striking bituminous mine workers of the Rochester and Pittsburg Coal company. The two leaders spent the afternoon and evening in holding conference with district leaders. Today Mr. Mitchell will hold a conference with Manager Robinson, of the Rochester and Pittsburg company.

Still Refuse to Join Strikers.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 14.—Another day has passed, but still the engineers and pump runners employed at the Avondale, Petebone and Woodward collieries of the Lackawanna company refuse to obey the order of the United Mine Workers to quit work. The striking firemen are much discouraged over the course pursued by the engineers and pumpmen.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. United States Attorney General Orders Steps to Bring About Its Dissolution.

WORK IS TO BEGIN IN MISSOURI

Counsel for Large Packing House Admits the Government's Move Was Expected—How Butchers Are Prevented From Slaughtering Cattle.

Kansas City, Mo., April 14.—The Journal today says:

"According to a dispatch from Washington, Major William Warner, United States district attorney, has been instructed by the attorney general to take immediate steps to dissolve the so-called beef trust. A federal grand jury will be ordered this week to commence its session next Monday. Major Warner yesterday positively declined to make any statement whatever regarding the matter. 'Nothing so important to the entire people has occurred in years as the ordering of this investigation, if it should transpire to be the fact, as it is believed to be. In the past year, but notably in the past six months, the price of meat has gone up in an alarming way.

"The attorney for one of the largest packers in Kansas City, after hearing the dispatch read, said: 'We anticipated some such move as this, but we scarcely thought that it would go to the length of having the district attorney summon a grand jury, as I understand Major Warner has arranged to do. As to the merits or demerits of the case I have nothing to say. Of course, all packers that meats are up. So are cattle.'

"A large retail dealer said: 'We think there is a trust. No butcher is allowed to slaughter his own cattle. If he does, a butcher shop will start up next door to him and he will find himself undersold on everything he offers for sale. It is this treatment which compels all of us to buy from the packers, and all packers charge the same price.'

ROUGHS FIRED ON GENDARMES.

For the First Time in Brussels Riots the Cordons Retaliated With Ball Cartridges.

Brussels, April 14.—The bloody repression of the disorder of Saturday evening has created a painful impression among all classes here, although it is appreciated that a majority of the victims of the encounters do not belong to the better class of workmen. Saturday for the first time the police really fired their rifles loaded with ball cartridges. Previously they had used their swords and their revolvers, the latter usually being loaded with blank cartridges. Saturday's rioters were composed of the dregs of the population with a sprinkling of what is called the Young Socialist guard, composed of mere boys, with little regard for the orders of M. Van der Velde, a member of the chamber of deputies and the leader of the Socialist movement in Belgium and the Socialist committee.

The serious troubles began when a number of roughs fired revolvers in the direction of the cordons. The gendarmes then charged with drawn swords, and were greeted with a hail of stones, bottles and heavy iron rivets. An officer shouted to the crowd to disperse. No notice was taken of this order. Then, for the first time in many years, the gendarmes fired their Mauser carbines, loaded with ball.

It is impossible to ascertain the exact number of victims. Many who were slightly injured had their wounds dressed in pharmacies or went home. The director of the hospital of St. Pierre said yesterday afternoon that three rioters had died in the hospital, and that another one there was believed to be mortally injured. Thirty others who are badly hurt were received at the hospital Saturday night.

The authorities are anticipating today with anxiety, as the Socialist committee definitely has decided to

A Great Art School Needed In America

By EDWIN A. ABBEY, Artist

It seems to me that no one can seriously dispute the need of a great school of art in America. A million dollars would make such a school possible. As art is now taught in this country it is too fragmentary; its pupils are not thoroughly grounded; examinations are too easy. In foreign schools the examinations are very difficult, and a student must know much to pass them. There should be an American school with equally high requirements.

The American Art federation would be the institution which would most naturally father the work. The location for the school should be in a center where it would be to the advantage of both public and instructors to live. One would name New York, as the National academy is there, and the various art societies, to which most American artists contribute, hold their exhibitions there.

THE ABILITY OF AMERICANS IS NOT TO BE BELITTLED. THE BEST AMERICAN ARTISTS CAN HOLD THEIR OWN ANYWHERE.

American art as a whole, however, has the tendency to be preoccupied with problems of a technical nature, such as how to put on paint and things of that sort.

The art school should have, first of all, the great artists of the country as overseers. That is the method pursued in Munich, where the great artists are given studios in the school and the students are allowed several days in the week to consult them. In addition to the influence of American artists of first rank, the American school might also make arrangements to receive the advice of prominent foreign artists visiting this country.

As to instructors, there is no reason why they should not be drawn from the ranks of American artists. The curriculum of the school should embrace sculpture, painting and architecture, and every student should be made to learn something about all three.

THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT THAT THE TARIFF HAS WORKED GREATLY TO THE INTEREST OF ART DEALERS AND TO THE HARM OF EVERYBODY ELSE.

Foreign artists are practically debarred from sending their work to any American exhibitions, except to Pittsburg and incidentally the Pennsylvania academy, which takes over the exhibits from Pittsburg.

CANADA IS A GOOD CUSTOMER. Dominion Anxious for Reciprocity in the Matter of Coal.

Washington, April 14.—The United States enjoys more of Canadian custom than the rest of the world put together. Canada is the best customer we have, excepting only Great Britain and Germany. Consul General Bittinger, at Montreal, in a report on the subject, says: "Canada wants to send to the United States her lumber, wood pulp, hay, barley and minerals. The United States consumes more lumber and paper than any other nation in the world, and she should be glad to admit lumber and wood pulp free. If the United States would take off the duty on Canadian coal, which could be profitably sold only to a very limited extent along our eastern coast, our coal would be admitted into Canada free, and our sales of coal in the Dominion would be double what they are at present."

Story of a French Cat.

This cat story comes from Pont Ste. Maxence (Oise), and for such a small place it is an extremely tall tale, says the Paris Messenger. It would appear that a resident in the place, who is an enthusiastic angler, used to keep live bait in a small tank on his premises. The angler also had a cat who naturally was fond of fish, raw or cooked. This being so, his owner covered his tank with wire netting to keep pussy out of temptation.

But the cat knew a trick or two and went to the nearest refuse heap for some fowl giblets which were providentially lying there. These she took to the tank, let them hang into the water from the netting and began fishing on her own account. When the fish nibbled at the bait, pussy would catch it with a nimble claw! The angler, noticing the trick, threw the bait away, but half an hour later pussy was at it again.

We hardly know which to admire most, the cat's ingenuity or that of the concocter of the story.

One would name New York, as the National academy is there, and the various art societies, to which most American artists contribute, hold their exhibitions there.

THE ABILITY OF AMERICANS IS NOT TO BE BELITTLED. THE BEST AMERICAN ARTISTS CAN HOLD THEIR OWN ANYWHERE.

American art as a whole, however, has the tendency to be pre-occupied with problems of a technical nature, such as how to put on paint and things of that sort.

The art school should have, first of all, the great artists of the country as overseers. That is the method pursued in Munich, where the great artists are given studios in the school and the students are allowed several days in the week to consult them. In addition to the influence of American artists of first rank, the American school might also make arrangements to receive the advice of prominent foreign artists visiting this country.

As to instructors, there is no reason why they should not be drawn from the ranks of American artists. The curriculum of the school should embrace sculpture, painting and architecture, and every student should be made to learn something about all three.

THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT THAT THE TARIFF HAS WORKED GREATLY TO THE INTEREST OF ART DEALERS AND TO THE HARM OF EVERYBODY ELSE.

Foreign artists are practically debarred from sending their work to any American exhibitions, except to Pittsburg and incidentally the Pennsylvania academy, which takes over the exhibits from Pittsburg.

CANADA IS A GOOD CUSTOMER.

Dominion Anxious for Reciprocity in the Matter of Coal.

Washington, April 14.—The United States enjoys more of Canadian custom than the rest of the world put together. Canada is the best customer we have, excepting only Great Britain and Germany. Consul General Bittinger, at Montreal, in a report on the subject, says: "Canada wants to send to the United States her lumber, wood pulp, hay, barley and minerals. The United States consumes more lumber and paper than any other nation in the world, and she should be glad to admit lumber and wood pulp free. If the United States would take off the duty on Canadian coal, which could be profitably sold only to a very limited extent along our eastern coast, our coal would be admitted into Canada free, and our sales of coal in the Dominion would be double what they are at present."

Gen. White Succeeds Wade Hampton.

New Orleans, April 14.—General J. B. Gordon, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, in a general order, directs Major General Robert White, commander of the West Virginia division, to assume command of the Army of Northern Virginia department, United Confederate Veterans, until the next annual meeting, in place of Lieutenant General Wade Hampton, deceased. General White is also directed to place the ranking brigadier in command of the West Virginia division.

New Oil Company Asks Charter. Cumberland, Md., April 14.—G. O. DeVaughn and J. F. DeVaughn and S. E. Gross, of Uniontown, Pa., and J. Frank Fields and J. T. Mason, of Hancock, this state, are incorporators of the Keystone Oil and Gas company, and have applied for a charter from West Virginia. The capital stock is $500,000. They will operate oil wells in Maryland, West Virginia and Pennsylvania. They have 5,000 acres leased.

TO PRISON FOR LIFE.

Murderous Music Teacher Miller Gets Michigan's Extreme Penalty.

Detroit, April 14.—At midnight Saturday night Prof. J. F. Miller, the 47-year-old music teacher who with a hatchet killed his pupil, Miss Carrie M. Jennett, 22 years old, was sentenced to prison for life at hard labor—the extreme penalty for murder in Michigan. Miller had pleaded guilty and gave as a reason for his crime that the girl, whom he had wronged, desired him to abandon his family and flee with her. In sentencing Miller the judge called him a demon, and the prisoner's attorney congratulated the police department for its efficient work in running down the murderer. The murderer was sentenced just 72 hours after the commission of his crime. Miller's wife is prostrated.

Major Waller Acquitted.

Manila, April 14.—Major Littleton W. T. Waller, of the marine corps, has been acquitted. He was tried by a court martial on the charge of killing natives of the island of Samar without trial. The court stood 11 to 2 for Waller's acquittal.

Over 60 Bishops to Be There.

Cincinnati, April 14.—Over 60 bishops have signified their intention to be present in this city on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, at the session of the house of bishops of the Episcopal church, when bishops of Salina (Western Kansas), of Honolulu and of Porto Rico, and, perhaps, of Mexico, are to be selected.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

HERE'S A GOOD THING

Something You Can Readily Believe, As It's East Liverpool Evidence.

Mr. M. Rushton, of No. 387 West Market street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "Before I used Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store I was bilious—head felt achy and dull. The effect of the medicine was to clear the head—give a feeling of strength, energy and new life. This I think justifies a recommendation."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

Story of a French Cat.

This cat story comes from Pont Ste. Maxence (Oise), and for such a small place it is an extremely tall tale, says the Paris Messenger. It would appear that a resident in the place, who is an enthusiastic angler, used to keep live bait in a small tank on his premises. The angler also had a cat who naturally was fond of fish, raw or cooked. This being so, his owner covered his tank with wire netting to keep pussy out of temptation.

But the cat knew a trick or two and went to the nearest refuse heap for some fowl giblets which were providentially lying there. These she took to the tank, let them hang into the water from the netting and began fishing on her own account. When the fish nibbled at the bait, pussy would catch it with a nimble claw! The angler, noticing the trick, threw the bait away, but half an hour later pussy was at it again.

We hardly know which to admire most, the cat's ingenuity or that of the concocter of the story.

An Example.

"The chimney is smoking," he said. "Yes," she retorted; "that's the effect of bad example. Usually the chimney has consideration enough to do its smoking outdoors."

KNIGHTS' TRIP

VISIT TO DENNISON BY K. OF C. MOST ENJOYABLE.

Large Crowd Went By Special Train And Witnessed Degree Work.

Members of the Knights of Columbus of this city who attended the exemplification of the third degree at Dennison yesterday, returned to this city this morning on a special train at about 3 o'clock. As far as lodge work is concerned the affair was an entire success. The special train, which left here at about 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning, contained in the neighborhood of 75 persons from this city. They were accompanied by members of the order from Rochester, Beaver, Wellsville, Toronto and Steubenville, and at Dennison the members were met at far south as Zanesville. That a good time was had goes without saying.

The order at Dennison had three rooms prepared for the visitors, in one of which refreshments were served and in another an entertainment and banquet was given, while in the hall the degree work was given. The first degree was exemplified by District Deputy James H. Grafton, of this city, while the second degree was worked by the Grand Knight from Zanesville. The third degree was worked jointly. The party was in charge of District Deputy P. A. Gavin, of Toronto.

It is estimated that not less than 300 persons witnessed the ceremonies at Dennison. Many of the members of the local council took their families on the trip, which was one of the most enjoyable of the season.

PASTOR CORRELL REMAINS

Directors and Congregation Invite Him to Continue Here Another Year.

The board of directors of the Christian church lately held its annual meeting. As usual the question came up about continuing the pastor for another year. The board consists of about 17 members, and it voted unanimously to invite the present pastor, Rev. J. W. Gorrell, to continue.

Later the congregation was permitted to vote upon the subject by ballot, with the result that from the entire congregation there were just three persons who voted against the proposition.

This was certainly quite flattering to Rev. Mr. Gorrell, but not more so than his efforts in behalf of the church have merited, and he has the distinction of being the only pastor who has ever received three successive calls with so little opposition from the church. Rev. Mr. Gorrell is pleased with this manifestation of appreciation, and has consented to remain another year.

TO ATTEND A WEDDING

Rev. W. B. Campbell Will Perform the Marriage Ceremony for His Brother.

Rev. W. B. Campbell, of Calcutta, left this morning for West Sunbury, Pa., where on Wednesday he will attend the wedding of his brother, Dr. J. S. Campbell, who has just returned from a two-years' stay at Loveland, Cal., and Miss Laura Coulter, of West Sunbury. After the ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. Mr. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Campbell will come to Wellsville, where they will make their home.

Previous to his going to California, Dr. Campbell was a resident of Wellsville and is well known there.

Fine job work—News Review office.

IT DOES THE BUSINESS

News Review Advertisers Learn Quickly the Value of Small Ads.

"Please take that ad out of the paper," said a Northside lady, who had ordered a "For Rent" notice printed three times in the Evening News Review. "One notice did the business. Scarcely were the papers on the street before I began receiving applicants. I had the place rented in a few minutes. Callers kept coming, until to find peace and quiet, I was obliged to lock up the house and go away from home. Why, from the answers I have received to one five-line ad, I should judge everybody in town reads the News Review."

A West End man who wanted to buy a horse had a similar experience and is equally loud in his praise of the News Review as an advertising medium. Half an hour after the paper appeared, he got a bargain in horseflesh with which he was perfectly satisfied. He had the advertisement discontinued, but men with horses for sale kept on coming for days, and perhaps are coming yet.

A quarter invested in the classified ad column of this paper will accomplish more for the advertiser than he could accomplish himself by days of effort. That is why the small ad column is lengthening every day.

Maternity the Purpose Of a Woman's Life

By M. HUGUES LE ROUX, the French Lecturer

IN MOLIERE'S DAY WOMEN MARRIED ONLY FOR MONEY AND POSITION. THOSE WHO COULD NOT FIND SUITABLE HUSBANDS EITHER BECAME BACHELOR GIRLS OR RETIRED TO A CONVENT. THERE WAS THE INGENUE TYPE OF GIRL, MODEST, SHRINKING, DOMESTIC; BUT GRADUALLY THERE CAME INTO EXISTENCE THE "BONNE CAMARADE." MEN, HOWEVER, ARE LEARNING THAT IN MARRIAGE IT IS THE HOMEMAKER RATHER THAN THE GOOD FELLOW THAT MAKES THE BEST WIFE. IN A GOOD MARRIAGE IT IS NECESSARY THAT LOVE CONTINUE AFTER THE UNION, AND WE MUST ENDEAVOR TO MAKE SURE BEFORE MARRIAGE THAT SUCH TRUE LOVE REALLY EXISTS.

MATERNITY IS, AFTER ALL, THE PURPOSE OF A WOMAN'S LIFE, AND IF SHE DOES NOT MARRY SHE SHOULD AT LEAST BECOME A TEACHER IN FACT IF NOT IN TITLE. TEACHING IS MORAL MATERNITY. WOMEN WHO DO NOT MARRY BEFORE THEY ARE TWENTY MAKE A MISTAKE.

HER VIEW OF IT.

She Couldn't See Any Advantage In the "Mother's Guide."

"With the aid of this little book," said the canvasser as he produced a "Mother's Guide" for the inspection of his victim, "you will be able to bring up your children properly."

She took the book and weighed it thoughtfully in her hand. Then she caught it by the edge and brought it down on the palm of her hand, as if to see if it could be handled with ease and dexterity.

"Oh, I don't know," she said at last. "I can't see that it's any better for that purpose than a slipper."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Mean Suggestion.

"Why has Jones turned vegetarian?"

"I suppose because it costs him nothing for board that way."

What Did She Mean?

"That foolish Clarence has proposed every week for the last six months, but the way I answered him the last time will stop him, I think," said Flora in a confidential chat.

"Yes, he told me he would have to quit," said Mazie. "He thought he observed a perceptible weakening."—Indianapolis News.

Strange Effects of Extreme Cold.

Dr. Moss of the English polar expedition of 1875-77, among many other things, told of the strange effects of the extreme cold upon the candles they burned. The temperature was from 35 to 50 degrees below zero, and the doctor says he was considerably discouraged when upon looking at his candle he discovered that the flame "had all it could do to keep warm." It was so cold that the flame could not melt all of the tallow of the candle, but was forced to eat its way down, leaving a sort of skeleton candle standing. There was heat enough, however, to melt odd shaped holes in the thin walls of tallow, the result being a beautiful lace-like cylinder of white, with a narrow tongue of yellow flame burning on the inside and sending out many streaks of light into the darkness.

Only One Clean Thing.

When Jones was at Oxford, he was a most excellent fellow, and had only one enemy—soap. He was called Dirty Jones. One day the wag Brown went into his rooms and remonstrating with him on the untidy, slovenly and dirty state of everything said:

KNIGHTS' TRIP

VISIT TO DENNISON BY K. OF C. MOST ENJOYABLE.

Large Crowd Went By Special Train And Witnessed Degree Work.

Members of the Knights of Columbus of this city who attended the exemplification of the third degree at Dennison yesterday, returned to this city this morning on a special train at about 3 o'clock. As far as lodge work is concerned the affair was an entire success. The special train, which left here at about 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning, contained in the neighborhood of 75 persons from this city. They were accompanied by members of the order from Rochester, Beaver, Wellsville, Toronto and Steubenville, and at Dennison the members were met as far south as Zanesville. That a good time was had goes without saying.

The order at Dennison had three rooms prepared for the visitors, in one of which refreshments were served and in another an entertainment and banquet was given, while in the hall the degree work was given. The first degree was exemplified by District Deputy James H. Grafton, of this city, while the second degree was worked by the Grand Knight from Zanesville. The third degree was worked jointly. The party was in charge of District Deputy P. A. Gavin, of Toronto.

It is estimated that not less than 300 persons witnessed the ceremonies at Dennison. Many of the members of the local council took their families on the trip, which was one of the most enjoyable of the season.

PASTOR CORRELL REMAINS

Directors and Congregation Invite Him to Continue Here Another Year.

The board of directors of the Christian church lately held its annual meeting. As usual the question came up about continuing the pastor for another year. The board consists of about 17 members, and it voted unanimously to invite the present pastor, Rev. J. W. Gorrell, to continue.

Later the congregation was permitted to vote upon the subject by ballot, with the result that from the entire congregation there were just three persons who voted against the proposition.

This was certainly quite flattering to Rev. Mr. Gorrell, but not more so than his efforts in behalf of the church have merited, and he has the distinction of being the only pastor who has ever received three successive calls with so little opposition from the church. Rev. Mr. Gorrell is pleased with this manifestation of appreciation, and has consented to remain another year.

TO ATTEND A WEDDING

Rev. W. B. Campbell Will Perform the Marriage Ceremony for His Brother.

Rev. W. B. Campbell, of Calcutta, left this morning for West Sunbury, Pa., where on Wednesday he will attend the wedding of his brother, Dr. J. S. Campbell, who has just returned from a two-years' stay at Loveland, Cal., and Miss Laura Coulter, of West Sunbury. After the ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. Mr. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Campbell will come to Wellsville, where they will make their home.

Previous to his going to California, Dr. Campbell was a resident of Wellsville and is well known there.

IT DOES THE BUSINESS

News Review Advertisers Learn Quickly the Value of Small Ads.

"Please take that ad out of the paper," said a Northside lady, who had ordered a "For Rent" notice printed three times in the Evening News Review. "One notice did the business. Scarcely were the papers on the street before I began receiving applicants. I had the place rented in a few minutes. Callers kept coming, until to find peace and quiet, I was obliged to lock up the house and go away from home. Why, from the answers I have received to one five-line ad, I should judge everybody in town reads the News Review."

A West End man who wanted to buy a horse had a similar experience and is equally loud in his praise of the News Review as an advertising medium. Half an hour after the paper appeared, he got a bargain in horse-flesh with which he was perfectly satisfied. He had the advertisement discontinued, but men with horses for sale kept on coming for days, and perhaps are coming yet.

A quarter invested in the classified ad column of this paper will accomplish more for the advertiser than he could accomplish himself by days of effort. That is why the small ad column is lengthening every day.

19TH YEAR. NO. 88.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, APRIL 14, 1902.

TWO CENTS.

BLACKMAIL WAS THE CHARGE THAT CAUSED BAKER'S ARREST

Grand Jury Investigating and a Sensational Disclosure Likely.

MONEY FROM SALOON MEN

Demanding by the Man Who Claimed to Be a Deputy Sheriff.

CLAIMED TO HAVE INFORMATION

That Would Lead to Conviction, But Was Willing to Hush the Matter Up for $25—Arrested at Rogers. Waived a Hearing Here.

Attempts to extort hush money from East Liverpool saloon keepers have brought the alleged originator of the scheme into trouble and have also resulted in the attention of the grand jury being called to the matter.

A charge of blackmail was filed in the mayor's court by W. H. Thompson, A. R. Guthrie and Walter Bower against O. L. Baker, a former street car man here.

Baker was alleged to have secured money from several saloon keepers for "tipping them off" on the strength of being on the inside as to the proposed action of the grand jury this week.

The man is said to have valued his information at $25 to each saloonist, and J. C. Walsh, D. A. Devine, Walter Bower, A. R. Guthrie and J. W. Geon are alleged to have been approached.

The saloon men soon acquainted each other of the circumstances surrounding the very peculiar transaction, with the result that a consultation was held. Before anything could be decided upon, however, Baker had left town, and it was supposed he had gone to his home at Rogers.

The charge was filed on Sunday and Officers Davidson and Morris were detailed on the case. At 1:15 last night the officers left the city in a buggy for Rogers. Six hours later they had their man in custody and telephoned Mayor Davidson for instructions. They were told to bring Baker here and Officer Morris stopped off at Rogers, leaving Davidson to drive to this city with the prisoner. The officer had a rough trip, breaking a single-tree and the dash-board of the buggy and injuring one of the horses. The roads were almost impassable.

Officer Davidson arrived here this afternoon with his prisoner shortly after 1 p. m.

Baker was arraigned soon after noon and was very nervous. The affidavits charged that about April 9 Baker had gained an audience with each. He claimed they had violated the law and unless he was given $25 in each case he would furnish the necessary information to the grand jury to secure their conviction. The money was to be paid on or before April 11.

The documents were read separately and to each he pleaded not guilty. Baker waived a hearing and was promptly bound over to court in the sum of $500 in each case. He will be taken to Lisbon tomorrow.

Baker said after his arrest that he was a deputy sheriff. Coming to town in the buggy, he said Leonard would see him through. He is also said to have made the remark that other deputies in the past had done the same thing, and he did not see why he could not do it.

Sheriff Leonard, who followed the arrested man to town, denied that Baker was a deputy. He said he did not know the man and had never seen him before. He states that he considers Deputy Allison a man above reproach, but believes Baker was trying to take advantage of his acquaintance with Allison.

Prosecuting Attorney J. H. Brookes was seen just before he left for Lisbon this morning, and told a reporter that the matter would be thoroughly investigated by the grand jury, now in session at Lisbon. No stone will be left unturned that will tend to throw light upon the very grave situation.

Seriously ill at Georgetown. Word was received in this city of the serious illness of E. W. Cross at his home at Georgetown. Mr. Cross is the financial agent of the Spang-Chalfant Steel company, of Allegheny and Sharpsburg, Pa., and his condition is considered critical. Friday evening a physician from Pittsburg was at his bedside all night, but his condition this morning was reported to have changed for the better. Mr. Cross is well known to a number of persons in this city.

DEAL COMPLETE

PENNSYLVANIA COMPANY GETS RINEHART PROPERTY.

Will Exchange It at Once for East Liverpool Sagger Company Lots.

Fred H. Mullins, representing the Pennsylvania company, this morning closed the deal for the Rinehart property on Second street, and the consideration, according to the original contract, $10,000, was paid over.

The property of the East Liverpool Sagger company, lying just across the alley and bordering upon the railroad, will be transferred to the railroad company at once, and the owners of the latter site will take possession of the Rinehart property.

The sagger company's possessions consisted of lot No. 69, which they owned outright and a lease upon lot No. 54.

Alex McBane, of the sagger company, had a conference with Supt. Scriven last week at Wellsville, the result of which was that, on Saturday at Pittsburg, the details of the deal were completed.

FOUR HORSES BURNED

IN A FIRE WHICH DESTROYED A WEST END BARN.

The Building Burned And Two Valuable Teams Along With It.

The barn of the Old Roman Wall Plaster company, in the West End, burned at 4:30 yesterday morning, incurring a loss of several hundred dollars.

NEW CENTURY CLUB

Held an Enjoyable Meeting And Indulged in Interesting Discussion.

The bimonthly meeting of the New Century club was held Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Murray Nickle, of Thompson avenue, as hostess. The members, as usual, responded to roll call with miscellaneous quotations, characteristic among which was one from Dickens—"I love these little people, and it is not a slight thing when they, who are so fresh from God, love us."

The subject for the afternoon's session, "The Hope of Our Country—Our Boys And Our Girls," was handled in a most interesting manner by Mrs. Ella Young. An animated discussion upon the subject followed by the members of the club.

A pleasant diversion was an instrumental solo by Mrs. Holloway and two very pretty vocal selections by Mrs. J. D. Clements. The entire session was of unusual interest. The club meets next upon April 26 at the home of Mrs. Sophie Riley.

THE GRAND JURY NOW IN SESSION

Judge Hole Congratulates It on Having Little Work to Perform.

ATTEMPTS TO BLACKMAIL

Are Brought to Its Attention And the Matter of Baker and the Saloon Keepers Will Be Duly Investigated. Few Charges of a Criminal Nature.

Lisbon, April 14. — (Special) — The grand jury was empaneled this morning at 10:30. The panel was not complete, but was filled by the summoning of five citizens of Lisbon.

In his charge to the jury Judge Hole said he was glad to state that there was little business for this grand jury to transact and few accusations to investigate. One charge of larceny is to be investigated; one case of failure to support a minor child and two charges of unnatural crime.

The usual instruction was given to investigate whether any firm, person or corporation is operating what is popularly known as a bucket shop. The attention of the jurors was called to a current report that there has been an attempt to solicit hush money from saloonkeepers, and that a person or persons have been guilty of blackmail. Such charges are to be fairly investigated by the grand jury, which is ordered to summon any and all persons who may be able to furnish information on the matter. J. J. Kirk, of Salineville, is foreman of the jury.

APPEALED TO LISBON

Case From Justice McCarron's Court Involving $41 in Money.

Lisbon, April 14. — (Special) — From the court of Justice McCarron in East Liverpool comes by the defendant's appeal the suit of Emil Sheetsel against Joseph Girard. The plaintiff sued for $41 as a balance on a loan of $100, and got a judgment for $7.50.

A Question for the Court.

The suit entered by the widow of the late Alfred N. Taylor, of this city, for $5,000 against the Travelers' Insurance company, of Hartford, Conn., on a policy, is taken to court at Lisbon merely to decide to whom the money is to be paid. The company stands ready to pay the policy, but a former partner of Mr. Taylor asserts that he has a claim upon it.

ALL THEY ASKED AND MORE GIVEN

Rock Springs Street Car Men Get an Advance in Wages.

THE LIMIT 23 CENTS

Which Sum Will Be Paid to Men Who Have Worked Over Two Years. President Smith's Proposition Very Promptly Accepted.

One of the most largely attended meetings ever held by Division No. 52, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees, of this city, was held Saturday evening in chambers in the East End. The little room was crowded. The meeting was a special session held for the purpose of considering a proposition from President C. A. Smith, of the East Liverpool & Rock Springs Railway company in answer to a communication received from his street railway employees about a week ago, when an advance in their wages from 20 cents an hour to 22 cents was asked.

Being fair in all matters of this kind it seems that Mr. Smith went the motormen and conductors one better, and offered more money than was asked, granted 23 cents an hour.

The proposition of President Smith, as presented to the division, in substance was as follows: All first year men shall receive 20 cents an hour; two-year men shall receive 22 cents an hour; over two years the men shall receive 23 cents an hour.

After the proposition of Mr. Smith had been placed in the hands of the committee of division No. 52 speedy action was deemed best. As a result President Kontner Saturday afternoon took a sealed vote upon the proposition as presented by Mr. Smith among the employees of the Rock Springs line, which showed matters to be entirely harmonious. The vote was opened at the meeting Saturday evening, which showed that the employees had accepted the proposition.

A committee composed of President Kontner, of Division No. 52, and Messrs. McKinnon, Williams and Allison, of the Rock Springs road, was appointed to call upon Mr. Smith today and have matters finally arranged, the committee having been given power to have a scale signed upon lines suggested by Mr. Smith.

The members of the local are loud in their praise for the manner they have been treated by Mr. Smith, and it is said that this is the first time any matter of grievance of the street railway employees has been settled before the time suggested by the local. In so doing, is evidence that the street railway employees desire nothing but harmony and the same can be said upon the part of the street railway company.

EDUCATORS IN COUNCIL

Interesting Topics Discussed at the Round Table at New Cumberland.

Supt. R. E. Rayman has returned from New Cumberland, W. Va., where he attended the Ohio Valley Round Table of Superintendents and Principals. The meeting was very largely attended and one of great importance, as the object of quite a number of superintendents is the organization of a tri-state round table.

GAMBLING DEN AND SALOON RAIDED BY POLICE OFFICERS

A number of very important topics were discussed, among which were: "How to Teach Spelling the First Two Years," "Will the Writing of the Future Be Vertical, Semi-Vertical or Slant?" "How Can the Boys in Our Cities and Towns Be Kept Longer in Our Public Schools?" "The High School Course, Three or Four Years, Which?" "Have You Tried Clay Modeling, With What Success?" and other questions equally interesting.

Through the instrumentality of Prof. Rayman the Ohio Valley Round Table will meet in this city next October, in joint session with the Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio Superintendents' Round Table.

The packers were represented by a committee composed of John Lester and Wash Williams, while President A. S. Hughes, T. J. Duffy and O. H. Boughton, of No. 25, looked after the packers' end of the discussion. The firm was represented by General Manager Thomas Price, of Toronto, and Vice President Frank W. Fowler, of the Union Pottery company.

President Boughton this afternoon stated that the packers would receive an increase of probably 33 1/3 per cent over the scale that is now paid, provided that nothing but flat and teas were packed.

PREACHED TO KILNMEN

A Large Number of Members of Local No. 9 Heard Rev. W. H. Gladden's Sermon.

Quite a large representation of Kilnmen's local No. 9 attended the morning service at the M. P. church, where an interesting sermon was delivered by Rev. W. H. Gladden. The speaker took his text from Numbers 6:24. The pastor confined his remarks to brotherhood and co-operation upon the part of the workmen and also the employer. He stated that the success of all things was due to a harmonious co-operation, and that genuine co-operation was Godlike.

There were about 125 members of the local present and for the occasion the choir rendered a special musical program. The service was one of the most interesting held in this city.

At present a number of engineers are at work between here and Waynesburg, and from all indications they represent the Wabash company, church for some time.

Ten Gamesters Taken Into Custody at Terry Carman's Place on Sunday.

PROPRIETOR FINED $50

And Made to Pay $10 and Costs For Each of the Visitors.

MIKE O'MALLEY'S SALOON

Also Receives Police Attention And the Proprietor And Ten Others Are Taken Into Custody—It Costs O'Malley $100 And the Others $10

Two raids and a number of drunks foot up the business of the local police court over Sunday.

Terry Carman's gambling room in Diamond alley was raided by Chief Thompson, Officers Dawson and Morris Saturday night, and 10 gamesters captured. The charge against the proprietor is that of keeping a gambling house, and those caught are charged with indulging in the play. All were notified to call at police headquarters this afternoon.

Carman today appeared at the mayor's office and paid $50 and costs. He also paid $10 and costs for each of the arrested visitors.

Mike O'Malley's saloon, Broadway, was doing a good business yesterday when Chief Thompson and Officers Dawson and Davidson appeared on the scene. The proprietor and ten loiterers were notified they would be expected before the mayor today. O'Malley paid $100 and costs, and those who were arrested at the same time are to appear tonight, when they will each be fined $10 and costs.

Officer Saulsberry arrested John Mullin Sunday night on a charge of drunkenness. He was fined $5.00, which he paid.

A charge of indecent exposure of person was placed against John Hester by Officer Aufderheide Saturday night and he will be given a hearing this evening.

Patrolman Woods arrested Tom McKeever on the same old charge of drunkenness Sunday, and he will settle with his honor this evening.

Thomas Pierce was very drunk in the West End Saturday night and was taken in custody by Officer Saulsberry. A fine of $5.00 was imposed, but the old man will be kept in jail for a time in order to sober up.

Link Ormes and Dick Burrows, both colored, created a disturbance on the wharboat last night, and a warrant was sworn out by Gus Martindill, proprietor of the wharboat. Ormes paid $7.00 this morning and Burrows is expected to contribute a like sum. The colored men say they will file charges against Martindill.

SUIT FOR $25,000

Entered by Dr. Lucy H. Adams, Well Known Here, Against an Editor.

A dispatch from Newark, O., states that in the common pleas court of that city on Saturday Dr. Lucy H. Adams, a physician practicing in Newark and in Pittsburg, commenced suit against Addison C. Dickinson, proprietor of the American Tribune of Newark, for $25,000 for libel in publishing an article in his paper connecting her with the celebrated Dis DeBar case.

Dr. Adams is well known in East Liverpool, having formerly practiced here.

EAST END

BARTERING A CHILD

GYPSY WOMAN WANTED TO
TRADE OFF HER BABY.

Carried Little One In Sling—Eager
to Get Rid of It.

Can it be true that slavery is practiced among the band of gypsies which are now camped in the East End on property owned by Dr. William Calhoun? Saturday afternoon several women of this roaming band while canvassing the Klondike section called at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGaffick, and while there one of the women, carrying a two-weeks-old baby in a sling around her neck, offered to trade children with Mrs. McGaffick. Being a true American woman Mrs. McGaffick promptly ordered the gypsies out of her house, and was so amazed at the offer of the gypsy woman that she hardly knew what to say. Not only at this home has the offer been made to trade the little gypsy baby for an American child, but to others in this part of the city as well. It seems that the band have a desire to rid themselves of this little one, and an offer was made to a woman residing along Dry run, near the camp last Friday morning to take the baby home with her. Such acts have startled the residents of this portion of the city, and it is said that inasmuch as the band has been ordered off the property by Dr. Calhoun, that redress will be sought by the police. Such persons are a disgrace to any community, and the sooner they are driven from the city the better it will be for all concerned.

Should the band be allowed to remain in the city much longer it is hard to tell what crime they will commit.

FELL INTO THE RIVER

A Nine-Year-Old East End Lad Has
a Narrow Escape From Drowning.

Vincent Burchett, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Burchett, of St. George street, met with an accident yesterday which came near resulting in his death. With several other small boys he was playing on a raft in the Ohio river near the foot of Mulberry street. In some manner the boy fell into the river, where the water was at least six feet deep.

He swam for the shore, and when about 20 feet from the landing several of his companions rescued him. He was then taken to his home, vowing never again to go near the river again.

STRUCK A WIRE FENCE

An East End Boy Gets a Bad Hurt
While at Play.

An accident happened Saturday afternoon to Earl Kidder, a son of Alonzo Kidder, of Elm street. Young Kidder with several other boys was playing in the street and in running he collided with a wire fence, causing a deep cut on his forehead. He will be unable to be out for several days.

A Policeman Needed.

Much complaint was heard in the East End this morning over the actions of four men yesterday afternoon. One of the men was colored, and all were under the influence of liquor. There were quite a number of people in Oakland yesterday being drawn there by the gypsy camp, and the women there were subjected to all sorts of insults. That the East End needs a regularly employed roundsman there is no doubt.

A Social Tonight.

The Oakland Athletic club will give a box social at Columbian park this evening, and from the proceeds will be purchased uniforms for the baseball club this association will have the coming summer. The attendance promises to be large.

AFTER COAL TERRITORY

Big Companies Are Seeking Leases
In Vicinity of Teegarden.

Salem, Apr. 14.—There is a big fight for coal territory going on at present a few miles south of this city. Three big coal companies are after about 1000 acres of coal land between Franklin Square and Teegarden. The fight is growing quite interesting and prices for coal land are growing higher. Card & Prosser, of Lisbon, have secured a lease for 250 acres of coal land between Long's Crossing and Teegarden. It is the intention to open a large mine on the territory leased, this summer. A large number of men will be employed.

The Lisbon Coal company, in which the Osbornes, of Cleveland, are interested, has been after the territory for some time, but as yet has not been successful in obtaining any options or leases. Another large Cleveland coal company is after some land in that section.

To Open a New Mine.

Salem, Apr. 14.—The Columbian Fire Clay company is about to open a large coal mine near Washingtonville on the Salem railway. The plant will cost over $10,000. The company will control over 500 acres of land and employ over 100 miners. The Salem railroad will have to get another engine to handle the traffic.

Crispi's Narrow Escape.

The Courier des Etats Unis says that on Jan. 14, 1858, the late Francesco Crispi, the great Italian statesman, then a political refugee in Paris, received from an Italian friend connected with the Paris opera two gallery tickets for the performance of that evening, which the emperor and empress were expected to attend. Crispi and his wife were on the point of starting for the theater when the latter exclaimed, "Francesco, where shall we get a candle?"

They were in such destitution that they had neither candles nor matches nor yet the wherewithal to buy them. Going to the opera would involve groping for their room at midnight and going to bed in total darkness. Too proud to confess their condition and to borrow a few sous, they regretfully denied themselves the promised treat, remained in their room and retired before the twilight had faded.

On the following morning they learned of Orsini's attack on the emperor, the police raids and the arrest of all Italian revolutionists found in or near the theater. If Crispi had been in the house, he would certainly have been among the first arrested, for he was known as an ardent disciple of Mazzini.

Division General Poor Speller.

"When I was in the civil war," said General Grosvenor, "I had a division commander who was the finest looking man on a horse you ever saw. He was a good soldier, too, but he had some educational deficiencies. One day he thought to drill his division. After some maneuvering he got them lined up in column of fours to start."

"The proper command is 'Column, forward!' The general didn't know this, and he waved his sword in the air and yelled 'Column!' Not a man moved. The general had a voice you could hear half a mile. He stood up in his stirrups and yelled again, 'Column!' Still there was no move. Then he turned his horse and dashed back to the soldiers.

"What's the matter?" he shouted, so loud that everybody on the parade ground could hear him. 'Can't you understand when I give a command? Column! Column! I'll spell it for you, you idiots—C-o-l-u-m-n!'"

TALMAGE IS NO MORE

Foremost American Preacher
Succumbs to Inflammation
of the Brain.

WAS IN POOR HEALTH FOR WEEKS

Noted Divine in Youth Intended to Become a Lawyer, but Soon Turned to the Ministry and Early Achieved Fame—Sketch of His Career.

Washington, April 14.—The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, the Presbyterian divine, died last Saturday night at 3 o'clock at his residence in this city. He had been in poor health for six weeks, suffering from influenza and serious catarrhal conditions. The immediate cause of death was inflammation of the brain. He had not been rational since the middle of last week. The patient's life passed away so quietly that even the members of the family about his bedside hardly knew that he had gone.

Dr. Talmage had been married three times, his last bride being Mrs. Eleanor McCutcheon-Collier, a widow, whom he married in Allegheny, Pa., over four years ago. Besides Mrs. Talmage, other members of his family at the deathbed were: The Rev. Frank DeWitt Talmage, Chicago; Mrs. Warren G. Smith, Brooklyn; Mrs. Daniel Mangum, Brooklyn; Mrs. Allen E. Donnan, Richmond; Mrs. Clarence Wycoff and Miss Talmage, Washington.

Arrangements were completed yesterday for the funeral services over the remains of Dr. Talmage. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the Church of the Covenant, this city. There will be no funeral sermon, but short addresses concerning the life and works of Dr. Talmage will be made by men who have been intimately associated with him. At 9 o'clock Wednesday morning the interment will take place in the family lot at Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn.

Silent tribute to the memory of Dr. Talmage was paid yesterday by thousands of people who walked past the residence on Massachusetts avenue. Messages of sympathy from nearly every state in the Union, and from England, Russia and other European countries, came to the family during the day.

Had Wonderful Popularity.

Dr. Talmage was beyond a doubt the most popular preacher America has produced. When he had a church his congregations were as enormous as those of Henry Ward Beecher, and he at the same time addressed another congregation of millions through the newspapers. When he was preaching in Brooklyn there was no necessity of a stranger asking where Dr. Talmage's church was; all he had to do was to follow the crowd. For many years his sermons were preached both from the pulpit and through the newspapers, but after he gave up his pulpit in Washington the great divine spoke to his flock wholly through the public press, and there was hardly a town in the United States where his sermon in the daily or weekly newspaper was not eagerly awaited by scores of people. It is probably no exaggeration to state that his sermon was read each week by several millions of people. It appeared in at least six languages, and the combined circulations of the newspapers printing his sermons were estimated at 30,000,000.

Few men were capable of doing as much literary work in a day as the famous preacher. When nearing three-score and ten he often dictated as many as 20,000 words in a day, and on many occasions he has worn out two or three stenographers during that time. His sermons were all first preached to a stenographer, and when he was in the throes of composition he walked tirelessly up and down his study preaching and gesticulating exactly as he did later in the pulpit and almost with as great rapidity. Each week he read thoroughly between fifty and a hundred papers, wrote the editorials for his religious weekly, The Christian Herald, dictated sermons, correspondence, letters and books, saw scores of friends, business callers, admirers, cranks and imposters, and during his lecture season lectured at least once a year in most of the large and many of the small cities of the country.

He once tried dictating his sermons to a phonograph, but, as walking about the room was practically a necessity and as he could not very well carry the machine with him, he abandoned the scheme. He often said that in all his life he had never written a line or spoken a word with the aid of a stimulant. At one time he was a habitual smoker, but ceased one day with a sudden resolution that was typical of his whole life.

A New Jerseyman by Birth.

Dr. Talmage was born in Bound Brook, Somerset county, N. J., Jan. 7, 1832. His home was a small farm, and he was the youngest son of a family of 12 children. His parents were deeply religious people, and their greatest desire was to see some of their sons enter the ministry. Their hopes were fulfilled, for the eldest brother at the close of his college life went to China as a missionary, while another became a minister. Dr. Talmage himself entered law, but his parents never ceased to hope that he would eventually follow in the footsteps of his brothers. In 1853 he gave up legal practice and went to the college at New Brunswick to prepare for the ministry.

His first charge was at Belleville, N. J., where he spent three years. He then accepted a call to a church at Syracuse, N. Y., and remained there until 1862, when he accepted a pastorate in Philadelphia. This gave him his first chance at reaching the people of a great city. His success was instantaneous, and he finally received three simultaneous calls from Brooklyn, Chicago and San Francisco. Though the church which had called him to Brooklyn boasted only 17 members, he chose that city, and the result of his choice is well known. Within a year it was necessary to erect a structure capable of holding 3,000 people. Two years later this church was burned to the ground.

An edifice that would seat 5,000 was then built, but was inadequate to accommodate the thousands that flocked to hear the famous preacher. For 15 years the church had wonderful prosperity, which was rudely broken by a second fire that laid it in ashes. Undismayed, a third tabernacle was built. It was completed in 1891, and its dedication was a great public occasion.

The Third Fire.

This tabernacle was a grand and beautiful place of worship, with a vast seating capacity and perfect acoustic properties, but it was not destined to stand long. On Sunday, May 13, 1894, shortly after the close of the morning services, fire broke out and before it was under control had left the magnificent building a pile of smoking ruins.

Dr. Talmage for a time ceased active pastoral work and went abroad for a tour of the world. He preached to large audiences in Australia, New Zealand, India and Great Britain, and on his return wrote the story of his travels in a book called "The Earth Girdled," which enjoyed a wide circulation. He now devoted himself almost exclusively to his editorial work on The Christian Herald, his sermons being syndicated for weekly publication. In 1895 Dr. Talmage accepted for a time a pastoral call from the First Presbyterian church in Washington and was soon the most popular minister at the national capital. In 1900 he retired from active connection with the Washington church and devoted his time to editorial work, preaching and lecturing. The passing years served to increase his fame, and an announcement that he was going to preach always attracted a large audience.

Dr. Talmage was a voluminous writer on religious subjects. He was the author of a number of lectures, and his sermons have been published in 30 volumes. Among the better known of his works were "From Manger to Throne," "Sparks From My Anvil," "Crumbs Swept Up," "Sports That Kill," "Night Sides of City Life," "The Poetry of Life" and "Old Wells Dug Out." It is estimated that for many years his royalties netted him the princely income of $20,000 a year.

Evidence is not wanting that the order recently issued by the street commissioner requiring property owners to clean up the streets and alleys surrounding their premises is being obeyed only to a slight extent, if at all. The cold and stormy weather would probably be the excuse, if one were sought. Certain it is that the city, instead of becoming cleaner, is day by day becoming dirtier—disgracefully filthy in spots and almost everywhere untidy. The street that does not contain heaps of rubbish or other unsightly objects that ought not to be there is the exception rather than the rule. As for paper—which, by an ordinance, every person is forbidden to throw into the street—the town looks as if a large portion of the inhabitants were trying to see how much litter they could make. A few arrests and convictions for defying the law and making the streets a dumping ground for this sort of waste material might result in some regard for the ordinance as well as for cleanliness. The experiment ought to be tried. Dirty streets are discreditable as well as a menace to health. There is a remedy for existing conditions, and it should be applied.

Dr. Talmage, undoubtedly the best known minister in America, is dead. Not since Henry Ward Beecher's time has there been a preacher of the gospel whose name was a household word throughout the land and whose pulpit utterances were so widely read. He had not Beecher's culture and eloquence, but he was a mighty man just the same. He had a vigorous command of language, and he believed in calling a spade a spade. His popularity was largely due to the fact that he discussed questions of everyday life—such as every person is called upon at some time or other to solve—as well as public and popular issues. He probably preached to more people than any other man that ever lived. For he not only spoke and lectured regularly to large audiences, but understanding fully the value of the press, he preached regularly to millions of people through thousands of newspapers, daily and weekly, small and large. A man so widely known naturally had enemies, but his admirers outnumbered them thousands to one. His death leaves more than a vacant pulpit. It is a vacancy in the religious world, with no successor now in sight to fill the place.

Governor Nash has designated April 18 as Arbor Day. All public schools are requested to devote two hours of the day to the interests of forestry. Property owners ought to devote many times that number of hours to tree planting each spring, if they have lots capable of being beautified by the addition of shade or fruit trees. Not only Arbor Day but many of the dates of which land owners can fix for themselves, should be observed. There is no finer natural object than a handsome tree, and the cultivation of trees both for useful and ornamental purposes does not receive half the attention that it merits.

Even the bellicose Kruger is ready to give up, if one may judge from his remark that it is "not for the Boer representatives in Europe, sheltered from danger, to be more warlike than those fighting."

King Alfonso is reported to be jealous of King Edward. Yet the latter would doubtless be glad to give half of his years and half of his weight to Alf if it were possible.

It is reported that scores of mule dealers in Missouri were seized with nervous prostration on hearing the report that the Boers were moving for peace.

POTTERY NEWS

An English pottery woker, who recently came to this city, and who expects to make his home here, gave the following account of how the English operative works: "They work differently in this country from the English. The American operative has the best of the English workman in many ways. Over there the operative is not paid for any ware with the exception of that which 'comes good from the kiln.' A list is kept by the firm of what ware is placed by the kilnman, and if there is anything wrong with the ware after it comes from the kiln, the cause is easily traced. In America nothing of this sort is done. When the ware is placed in the green house in good order, there it ends as far as the maker is concerned. There is no 'keeping tab' on the kilnmen, and the clay worker suffers no loss after the ware is counted. These ways are new to workmen who come here and secure positions."

The non-payment of board bills at New Cumberland has caused no end of talk among the employees of the Chelsea. In speaking of the state of affairs an employee of the plant said: "I think there should be some steps taken by the potters to do away with the continuous thing of 'board bill jumpers.' It seems to me there should be a law passed by the Brotherhood compelling a man to pay such bills as these at least for the good of the good of the trade. People of this kind are the cause of us getting the name of 'bum potters.'"

Trade is reported to have been slower at a majority of the potteries last week than at any time during the past month. Stocks are accumulating heavily at some of the plants. One manufacturer said that his general stock was now sufficient for a ninety day trade on the basis of last month's volume, and the only necessity of operating his plant now was to make matchings and maintain assortments.

Papers have been sent to Columbus for the incorporation of the L. W. Camp company, of Akron. The company is composed of L. W. Camp, R. E. Armstrong, T. W. Miller, Amelia Camp and Grace C. Armstrong. It will be capitalized at $100,000. The company has purchased land for the erection of a big clay plant and will begin its erection at once.

Not one piece of ware that is being made at the Union is being placed in stock. As soon as it is taken from the glost kiln it is taken to the ware room, where, after it is dressed it is pushed into the packing shed and shipped. It has been a long time since any ware has been placed in the stock room on the upper floors at the plant.

A Ford City operative says: "I think if the convention will enforce the 10 hour law it will be a great good to the potters. The eight-hour movement is all right, but it would be too hard to jump from the present system of working and come down to eight hours. Let's make ten hours a success first."

J. E. Smith, of the glost department at Laughlin No. 2, who has secured the position as bench boss at the new Barborton pottery, has about completed the formation of his crew. It is announced that a number of kilnmen at the East End potteries will soon be located at Barborton.

The Monument Pottery company, of Trenton, has given Lewis Lawton the contract for an addition to its plant to cost $70,000. John Barlow has been awarded a contract by the Trenton Pottery company for the building of an addition to the Ideal pottery to cost $2,400.

W. P. Brown, a popular salesman of the Dresden, who has been in the east for several weeks, has returned to the city. Mr. Brown states he had a successful trip, and that orders were being placed more freely now than for some time. He will go out again in a short time.

The Chelsea is running more steadily than at any time since it was started. It makes quite a change on the men with everything working smooth. They are in better spirits, and there is no grumbling on account of short time.

Collections by the potters are said to be slow. The condition has been growing for some time, until now the complaint is becoming quite general. Merchants plead poor retail trade and bad collections from their patrons.

The Shenango, New Castle, packed and shipped its first car of ware April 2. It went to New York. Their first kiln of decorated ware was placed last week. The superintendent of the decorating department is Mrs. Julian.

The printers and transfers, No. 22, will receive a number of new members into the organization at its next

AT THE THEATER

One of the largest houses of the season Saturday evening witnessed the presentation for the first time in this city of "The Telephone Girl," a musical comedy in two acts. In some respects the comedy was weak, but some of the members of the company made atonement for this. Miss Mabel Hite and Winfield Douglas were the main features in the production and they were well received.

ANOTHER ELECTION

May Be Necessary to Settle the Fourth Ward Assessorship.

Considerable discussion has arisen among Fourth ward residents recently concerning the assessorship in that ward.

Howard Bowers, an aspirant for the office at the last election makes the assertion that he has discovered that his successful opponent, A. R. Kiddy, who was elected assessor, and has had his bond accepted and approved, is not a resident of the ward and did not reside within its limits at the time he was elected, making Kiddy, therefore, not eligible to hold the position.

Bowers claims that steps will be taken to have the position declared vacant, while Kiddy is making a hard fight to prove his eligibility.

It is thought that the matter will terminate in the latter's favor, although it may be necessary to hold another election in that ward.

CAUGHT IN POLICE NET

Indulgence in Drink Gets Four Men Into the Wellsville Lockup.

Two plain drunks, John Saling, of East Liverpool, and Patrick Madden, of this city, were brought to the city jail on Saturday evening by Officers Thorn and Taylor, where they spent the night in sobering up.

They were given a hearing on Sunday morning by Mayor Fogo, and were fined the usual costs, which they paid, and were released.

On Sunday morning the mayor received a telephone call from residents in the West End who made complaint about two men who were using profane language on the street, both having partaken of an overdose of whiskey. Officers Thorn and Taylor investigated and brought the men to the city building where they now are. Their names are William Smith and Peter Morrissey, both of this city. They will be given a hearing today.

OBJECTS TO THE REPORT

Harry Quinn After the Reporter Who Killed Him in an Explosion.

Harry B. Quinn, who, according to a report in an East Liverpool paper Saturday, met a horrible death by being blown to pieces by the explosion of 100 quarts of nitro-glycerine, denies the allegation and is very much alive.

The report stated that the explosion occurred near the Turkeyfoot oil fields in Hancock county. Quinn has threatened to put the reporter in the river, but thus far has been unable to find him.

FOUND IN THE RIVER

A BODY SUPPOSED TO BE THAT OF FRANK PARKERSON.

He Was a Lather And Had Worked in Chester And East Liverpool.

The body of a dead man was found floating in the Ohio river near Arroyo on Saturday morning. The body appears to be that of a man about 28 years of age, and was dressed in a dark suit of clothes. The only identification found was a letter in a pocket of his coat bearing the heading of the National Wood, Wire and Metal Lathers' International union at East Liverpool, bearing the date of December 3, 1901, which read as follows:

"Permit Frank Parkerson to work until further notice. John J. Marshall, Secretary Local No. 58, National Wood, Wire And Metal Lathers' International union, East Liverpool." A man by this name formerly lived in Chester and worked there and in East Liverpool, but some time ago moved to New Cumberland, and is believed by Chester people to be the man that was drowned.

THE FERRY LANDING

Now the Issue Between Goucher And Johnston, of Congo.

Although a franchise has been granted to Samuel B. Goucher to operate and maintain a steam ferry between Congo and Wellsville, Goucher is now having considerable trouble in finding a suitable landing place on the West Virginia side of the river.

About 30 years ago a franchise for an unlimited period was granted to W. S. Johnston, of Congo, to operate a steam ferry between the two towns, Johnston having purchased the landing places on both sides of the river. Ten years ago Johnston sold the landing place on the Wellsville side of the river to the Pennsylvania Railroad company, reserving the right to land his ferry boat at the same place. Johnston still owns the landing place on the West Virginia side and will not, under any consideration, sell or lease to Goucher unless he pays an exceedingly high price for it. The place owned by Johnston seems to be the only suitable landing for a ferry in Congo and unless Johnston agrees to give up the land Goucher will have to take a back seat.

It is thought that the property can be purchased from Johnston if enough is offered. Johnston has stated that he will not allow Goucher to land on his property unless it is purchased from him.

ELECTRIC BRAKES

Will Be Added to All the Cars on the Rock Springs Line.

It will not be long now until electric brakes will be placed on cars of the East Liverpool and Rock Springs street railway. Saturday M. Cummins, a representative of the Standard Traction Brake company, of New York, was in the city. He took the measurement of several of the summer cars on the Chester line. Two of the brakes will be sent to the Chester barn within two weeks, and will be placed on summer cars. Motormen will then be instructed, at least those who have not had experience in handling the device. The new appliance will be attached to all cars on the line.

Young Men Born Rich Handicapped For Success

By United States Senator CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW

THE YOUNG MAN WHO IS BORN RICH IS SERIOUSLY HANDICAPPED FOR SUCCESS IN LIFE. He hasn't the spur of necessity, and unless he is peculiarly trained and more than ordinarily organized he has little ambition. The world is too easy for him. Its temptations are about him on every side with bad habits which make him worthless, or laziness or idleness which makes him useless. Of course, there are a few sons of rich men who have successes in life, but they are so exceptional their cases are very marked and remarked.

On the other hand, by being born poor I do not mean extreme poverty. Granted that with the advantages of the public schools the boy's parents can give him a first class education and then he has to make his own career, the spur of necessity will arouse every faculty which helps make success. With moderate success comes ambition, and as his spheres of activity enlarge he acquires a sense of power. He learns the value of temperance and character. He knows by experience that health and industry can accomplish almost anything and carry its possessor almost anywhere. As he grows in position, wealth and influence he is the more thankful every day for the condition which compelled him to do his mightiest or drop out of sight.

TAKE A NUMBER OF YOUNG MEN WHO ARE BORN RICH, AND IF THE STATISTICS WERE AVAILABLE AND IT COULD BE FOUND HOW MANY OF THEM REACHED SIXTY AND HOW MANY IN PROPORTION ACCOMPLISHED ANYTHING FOR THEMSELVES OR FOR THE WORLD THE STORY WOULD BE A GHASTLY ONE OF UNTIMELY ENDS OR FAILURES IN LIFE.

On the other hand, the vast majority of those who start under the conditions that I have mentioned live long and prosper. From their number come those who move the world and govern it, who are its masters in business enterprises, its leaders in the professions, its statesmen and rulers, its men of thought and of action.

SCIENTIFIC TORTURERS.

Some of the Cruelties That Are Perpetrated in Vivisection.

A certain Dr. Casten, wishing to study the effect of massage upon dislocations, deliberately dislocated the limbs of numerous dogs, says Henry C. Merwin in The Atlantic. He published an account of all these experiments, and the following is a fair example of them: "Experiment 8. Poodle dog  replaced on the table without chloral. I dislocate his two shoulders. The animal utters screams of suffering. I hold him for twenty minutes with his two shoulders dislocated and the elbows tied together behind his back ." "Dr. Majendie," relates Dr. Elliston, "in one of his barbarous experiments which I am ashamed to say, I witnessed, began by cutting out a large round piece from the back of a beautiful little puppy."

Majendie may have been by nature a brutal man, but even he would hardly have done that when he was young in vivisection.  In this country we are not quite so cruel as the French or Italians, but we are more cruel than the English, more cruel perhaps than the Germans.

A medical man in Jersey City published an account of some experiments which he made upon dogs—I will not shock the reader by describing them—and of this publication the British Medical Journal of Nov. 15, 1891, said, "It is a record of the most wanton and the stupidest cruelty we have ever seen chronicled under the guise of scientific experiments."

The Light on the Isle of Pharos.

The most famous lighthouse of antiquity stood on the Isle of Pharos, off the city of Alexandria, in Egypt. It was one of the seven wonders of the world and was put up during the reign of Ptolemy Philadelphus. After standing up 1,600 years it was destroyed by an earthquake. It is understood to have been over 500 feet high.

A Clever Retort.

A legal dignitary who had risen from a humble rank of life was twitted by an opponent for "having begun life as a barber's boy." "It is true that I did so," was the answer, "and if you had begun in a similar station you would have remained there till the present day."

WOMEN FOULLY SLAIN

Aged Mother and Middle-Aged Daughter Shot by an Unknown Party.

STEPSON IS UNDER ARREST.

Blood Spots Found on His Trousers.
His Father's Will Left the Bulk of the Estate to the Murdered Women.
Prisoner's Suspicious Actions.

Cleveland, April 14.—Mrs. Martha J. Calhoun, aged 75, and her daughter, Mrs. Vaughn, aged 46, were shot and killed yesterday morning by, as yet, an unknown party, two miles east of Mantua station, a village 40 miles southeast of this city. Will Vaughn, a stepson of the younger woman, is locked up in Ravenna jail, charged with the crimes because of circumstances which are alleged to incriminate him. Mrs. Vaughn was shot five times in the head, the sixth bullet of a revolver ending the life of her mother.

No one but the murderer saw the crimes committed, and when the dead bodies of the two women were found there was intense excitement in the little village. The body of Mrs. Vaughn was found in the kitchen of her home, lying in a pool of blood, and that of Mrs. Calhoun in an adjoining room, crouched in a corner with her hand before her face, as if in self-defense. There was a bullet hole in her left temple.

Because of the suspicious actions of Will Vaughn the authorities arrested him and took him to Ravenna jail. What are believed to be blood spots were found on his trousers. These Will Vaughn says came from a cut finger. Vaughn's father died a few days ago, and it is said he left the bulk of his estate to the two women. Vaughn was not a member of his father's household, living alone quite secluded from his neighbors in a house a quarter of a mile from his father's home.

SHOT TO DEATH BY BURGLARS.

Miner Killed for Alarming Boarding Boss, Who Also Is Seriously Injured.

Mahanoy City, Pa., April 14.—Seven masked burglars, in an encounter in a boarding house near the Gilberton colliery, yesterday morning, killed Wasi Talco, aged 35 years, shot and slightly wounded Mrs. George Bernitz, his boarding mistress, and clubbed her husband so badly that he is in a serious condition.

The battle with the burglars occurred at about 2 a. m., shortly after Talco returned from the coal mines. While he was preparing to retire the seven men burst into his room and commanded him to keep silent. He disobeyed them and began yelling for help, at which one of the masked men shot him through the head and he fell dead. Hearing the noise, Bernitz and his wife entered the room to see what was wrong. The two were instantly seized, and in the struggle Mrs. Bernitz received a slight bullet wound in the cheek and her husband was pounded into submission.

Several of the burglars then ransacked the house, while the others stood guard over the husband and wife. Three trunks were burst open, and savings amounting to a few hundred dollars and two watches were taken by the men. All of them escaped.

Memphis Mystery Cleared.

Memphis, Tenn., April 14.—The mystery surrounding the killing of A. T. Sharpe, a traveling man of Detroit, on a crowded street Saturday night, was cleared up last night, when Lacy Chase, a young man well known in Memphis, surrendered to the police. Chase claims that in an altercation with Sharpe the latter knocked him down, whereupon he drew his knife and cut Sharpe several times. Chase was jailed.

HOPE FOR PEACE INCREASES.

Midnight Cabinet Conference and Other Signs Buooy Up Hearts of the British.

London, April 14.—The announcement of the presence at Pretoria of the Orange Free State and Transvaal leaders and generals who have been at Klerksdorp considering terms of peace has caused a decided increase in the hopefulness of the public concerning the possibilities of peace.

A conference of members of the cabinet was held Saturday midnight in Mr. Chamberlain's house. Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Brodrick, the war secretary; Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the chancellor of the exchequer, and the Duke of Devonshire, president of the council, were present. The conference terminated at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, and yesterday Mr. Chamberlain and several of the colonial officials were in their offices. Messages passed between them and Sir Michael Hicks-Beach at his residence. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Chamberlain was with King Edward for two hours. The fact that Sir Michael Hicks-Beach was engaged in his office nearly all of yesterday is taken in some quarters to indicate a modification of the budget statement.

CUBAN RECIPROCITY TEST.

Fight Will Be Over the Differential on Refined Sugar.

Washington, April 14.—The leaders of the house expect to see the Cuban reciprocity bill passed during the present week, but they admit the debate may be prolonged so that the final vote will not be reached until next week. When the measure is thrown open for amendment under the five-minute rule a great number of amendments will be offered by the Democrats, with a view to opening up a way for amending the schedules of the Dingley tariff law. It is known that all such amendments will be held to be not germane. Appeals will be taken from the chair's rulings, but it is certain that with possibly one exception the appeals will be unsuccessful. That exception may be the amendment to take the differential off refined sugar. The real fight will come on that amendment. A number of Republicans who are opposing the bill have announced that they will vote to overrule the chair on that proposition, and the Democrats expect to cast a solid vote for it. The Republican opposition to the bill as shown last Tuesday on the motion to go into committee of the whole is in the neighborhood of 40. Added to the Democratic vote, if solidly cast, the opposition would have a clear majority of 10. If the danger involved in the amendment to abolish the differential is passed, the bill will have plain sailing on final passage, as a majority of the Democrats will vote for it.

The senate on Wednesday will vote on the Chinese exclusion bill, and the present understanding is that the Philippine government bill will be taken up immediately afterward. It is probable, however, that the Philippine bill will be soon broken in on by the calling up of the river and harbor bill. Being an appropriation bill, that is a privileged measure and can be taken up at any time, but it is not the desire of the committee to have it considered until there shall be a chance afforded to make further amendments in the committee. That opportunity will not be provided until Thursday, following the vote on the Chinese bill.

FIGHT OVER POOL ROOMS.

W. & J. Professors Clash Over Allowing Students to Frequent Them.

Washington, Pa., April 14.—For some time the students of Washington and Jefferson academy, who are allowed the privilege of the town on Saturdays, have been frequenting pool rooms in various parts of Washington. The faculty learned of this, and forbade any of the students to visit any pool or billiard room in the city. The managers of the various pool rooms in Washington have been notified not to allow any students of the academy to enter their rooms. Some of the professors are in favor of allowing the boys the freedom of the pool rooms, and there is a fight on in the faculty as a result.

Mitchell at Punxsutawney.

Punxsutawney, Pa., April 14.—President Mitchell and Secretary Wilson, of the United Mine Workers of America, arrived here yesterday for the purpose of conferring with the striking bituminous mine workers of the Rochester and Pittsburgh coal company. The two leaders spent the afternoon and evening in holding conference with district leaders. Today Mr. Mitchell will hold a conference with Manager Robinson, of the Rochester and Pittsburgh company.

Still Refuse to Join Strikers.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 14.—Another day has passed, but still the engineers and pump runners employed at the Avondale, Petebone and Woodward collieries of the Lackawanna company refuse to obey the order of the United Mine Workers to quit work. The striking firemen are much discouraged over the course pursued by the engineers and pumpmen.

Half the ills that man is heir to come from indigestion. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens and tones the stomach; makes indigestion impossible.

Wintering in Colorado And Utah.

The climate of Colorado and Utah has long been world famous, but it is only within recent years that attention has been given to the delightful winter climate of these states. Today physicians all over the United States send their patients to Colorado and Utah to escape the rigors of eastern winters and to benefit by her invigorating atmosphere and health-giving sunshine.

It is not necessary to add an elaborate argument—the conclusion is self-evident and inevitable. The winter climate of Colorado and Utah on the whole presents advantages for the invalid and the pleasure-seeker that cannot fail to command attention.

An erroneous impression prevails that because the Rocky mountains have a high elevation the mercury in the thermometer drops down below zero in the winter season and stops there, and that the snow mounts up with the altitude. The fact is that the average precipitation of moisture in the lowlands of the mountain region during the entire year is only 14.15 inches. With such average precipitation there is practically no danger of snow blockades on the railroads, save at a few points exposed to drifts and these points have been amply protected. This is especially true of the lines of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western between Denver and Ogden at all seasons of the year. Facts speak for themselves, and the fact is that travel over "The Scenic Line of the World" has gone on with less interruption from snow blockades during the last ten winters than it has upon the majority of railroads in other localities which are popularly supposed to be more free from such delays than the mountain systems. BASKET SHARES

Advance APRIL 19th, or Earlier

THE announcement that shares of the Mergenthaler-Horton Basket Machine Company would be advanced in price on or before April 24th resulted in so many new subscriptions that the closing of the 50 cent allotment has been brought five days nearer.

This present announcement, therefore, is that on or before Saturday, April 19th, instead of Thursday, April 24th, the price of shares in the Mergenthaler-Horton Basket Machine Company advances from 50 cents a share to 60 cents a share (par value $1.00, full paid and non-assessable).

Present Selling Price
50 Cents a Share

The closing day for this allotment has now been moved back twice, once from May 1st to April 24th, and now from April 24th to April 19th.

There are thousands ready to buy these shares. It is therefore necessary, in order to protect the interests of early shareholders, that the Directors reserve the right to reject any subscription, otherwise any day might see the allotment far over-subscribed.

It is but fair to state that those who have followed the course of the offering of these shares from the first allotment down to the present, should be prepared now to take action and subscribe, as the price will go steadily higher.

The above statements are made by authority of the Directors.

Checks, drafts, or money orders for subscriptions should be drawn to order of CHARLES R. BARLOW, Treasurer.

AFTER BEEF TRUST.

United States Attorney General Orders Steps to Bring About Its Dissolution.

WORK IS TO BEGIN IN MISSOURI

Counsel for Large Packing House Admits the Government's Move Was Expected—How Butchers Are Prevented From Slaughtering Cattle.

Kansas City, Mo., April 14.—The Journal today says:

"According to a dispatch from Washington, Major William Warner, United States district attorney, has been instructed by the attorney general to take immediate steps to dissolve the so-called beef trust. A federal grand jury will be ordered this week to commence its session next Monday. Major Warner yesterday positively declined to make any statement whatever regarding the matter.

"Nothing so important to the entire people has occurred in years as the ordering of this investigation, if it is believed to be. In the past year, but notably in the past six months, the price of meat has gone up in an alarming way.

"The attorney for one of the largest packers in Kansas City, after hearing the dispatch read, said: 'We anticipated some such move as this, but we scarcely thought that it would go to the length of having the district attorney summon a grand jury, as I understand Major Warner has arranged to do. As to the merits or demerits of the case I have nothing to say. Of course, if the meat is up, up. So are cattle.'

"A large retail dealer said: 'We think there is a trust. No butcher is allowed to slaughter his own cattle. If he does, a butcher shop will start up next door to him and he will find himself undersold on everything he offers for sale. It is this treatment which compels all of us to buy from the packers, and all packers charge the same price.'

ROUGHS FIRED ON GENDARMES.

For the First Time in Brussels Riots the Cordons Retaliated With Ball Cartridges.

Brussels, April 14.—The bloody repression of the disorder of Saturday evening has created a painful impression among all classes here, although it is appreciated that a majority of the victims of the encounters do not belong to the better class of workmen. Saturday for the first time the police really fired their rifles loaded with ball cartridges. Previously they had used their swords and their revolvers, the latter usually being loaded with blank cartridges. Saturday's rioters were composed of the dregs of the population with a sprinkling of what is called the Young Socialist guard, composed of mere boys, with little regard for the orders of M. Van der Velde, a member of the chamber of deputies and the leader of the Socialist movement in Belgium and the Socialist committee.

The serious troubles began when a number of roughs fired revolvers in the direction of the cordons. The gendarmes then charged with drawn swords, and were greeted with a hail of stones, bottles and heavy iron rivets. An officer shouted to the crowd to disperse. No notice was taken of this order. Then, for the first time in many years, the gendarmes fired their Mauser carbines, loaded with ball.

It is impossible to ascertain the exact number of victims. Many who were slightly injured had their wounds dressed in pharmacies or went home. The director of the hospital of St. Pierre said yesterday afternoon that three rioters had died in the hospital, and that another one there was believed to be mortally injured. Thirty others who are badly hurt were received at the hospital Saturday night.

The authorities are anticipating today with anxiety, as the Socialist committee definitely has decided to

A Great Art School Needed In America

By EDWIN A. ABBEY, Artist

It seems to me that no one can seriously dispute the need of a great school of art in America. A million dollars would make such a school possible. As art is now taught in this country it is too fragmentary; its pupils are not thoroughly grounded; examinations are too easy. In foreign schools the examinations are very difficult, and a student must know much to pass them. There should be an American school with equally high requirements.

The American Art federation would be the institution which would most naturally father the work. The location for the school should be in a center where it would be to the advantage of both public and instructors to live. One would name New York, as the National academy is there, and the various art societies, to which most American artists contribute, hold their exhibitions there.

THE ABILITY OF AMERICANS IS NOT TO BE BELITTLED. THE BEST AMERICAN ARTISTS CAN HOLD THEIR OWN ANYWHERE.

American art as a whole, however, has the tendency to be preoccupied with problems of a technical nature, such as how to put on paint and things of that sort.

The art school should have, first of all, the great artists of the country as overseers. That is the method pursued in Munich, where the great artists are given studios in the school and the students are allowed several days in the week to consult them. In addition to the influence of American artists of first rank, the American school might also make arrangements to receive the advice of prominent foreign artists visiting this country.

As to instructors, there is no reason why they should not be drawn from the ranks of American artists. The curriculum of the school should embrace sculpture, painting and architecture, and every student should be made to learn something about all three.

Foreign artists are practically debarred from sending their work to any American exhibitions, except to Pittsburg and incidentally the Pennsylvania academy, which takes over the exhibits from Pittsburg.

CANADA IS A GOOD CUSTOMER.

Dominion Anxious for Reciprocity in the Matter of Coal.

Washington, April 14.—The United States enjoys more of Canadian custom than the rest of the world put together. Canada is the best customer we have, excepting only Great Britain and Germany. Consul General Bittinger, at Montreal, in a report on the subject, says: "Canada wants to send to the United States her lumber, wood pulp, hay, barley and minerals. The United States consumes more lumber and paper than any other nation in the world, and she should be glad to admit lumber and wood pulp free. If the United States would take off the duty on Canadian coal, which could be profitably sold only to a very limited extent along our eastern coast, our coal would be admitted into Canada free, and our sales of coal in the Dominion would be double what they are at present."

HERE'S A GOOD THING

Something You Can Readily Believe, As It's East Liverpool Evidence.

Mr. M. Rushton, of No. 387 West Market street, East Liverpool, Ohio, says: "Before I used Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store I was bilious—head felt achy and dull. The effect of the medicine was to clear the head—give a feeling of strength, energy and new life. This I think justifies a recommendation."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

Story of a French Cat.

This cat story comes from Pont Ste. Maxence (Oise), and for such a small place it is an extremely tall tale, says the Paris Messenger. It would appear that a resident in the place, who is an enthusiastic angler, used to keep live bait in a small tank on his premises. The angler also had a cat who naturally was fond of fish, raw or cooked. This being so, his owner covered his tank with wire netting to keep pussy out of temptation.

But the cat knew a trick or two and went to the nearest refuse heap for some fowl giblets which were providentially lying there. These she took to the tank, let them hang into the water from the netting and began fishing on her own account. When the fish nibbled at the bait, puss would catch it with a nimble claw! The angler, noticing the trick, threw the bait away, but half an hour later puss was at it again.

We hardly know which to admire most, the cat's ingenuity or that of the concocter of the story.

An Example.

"The chimney is smoking," he said. "Yes," she retorted; "that's the effect of bad example. Usually the chimney has consideration enough to do its smoking outdoors."

Thus it came about that he finished his cigar on the back porch.—Chicago Post.

KNIGHTS' TRIP

VISIT TO DENNISON BY K. OF C. MOST ENJOYABLE.

Large Crowd Went By Special Train And Witnessed Degree Work.

Members of the Knights of Columbus of this city who attended the exemplification of the third degree at Dennison yesterday, returned to this city this morning on a special train at about 3 o'clock. As far as lodge work is concerned the affair was an entire success. The special train, which left here at about 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning, contained in the neighborhood of 75 persons from this city. They were accompanied by members of the order from Rochester, Beaver, Wellsville, Toronto and Steubenville, and at Dennison the members were met as far south as Zanesville. That a good time was had goes without saying.

The order at Dennison had three rooms prepared for the visitors, in one of which refreshments were served and in another an entertainment and banquet was given, while in the hall the degree work was given. The first degree was exemplified by District Deputy James H. Grafton, of this city, while the second degree was worked by the Grand Knight from Zanesville. The third degree was worked jointly. The party was in charge of District Deputy P. A. Gavin, of Toronto.

It is estimated that not less than 300 persons witnessed the ceremonies at Dennison. Many of the members of the local council took their families on the trip, which was one of the most enjoyable of the season.

PASTOR CORRELL REMAINS

Directors and Congregation Invite Him to Continue Here Another Year.

The board of directors of the Christian church lately held its annual meeting. As usual the question came up about continuing the pastor for another year. The board consists of about 17 members, and it voted unanimously to invite the present pastor, Rev. J. W. Gorrell, to continue.

Later the congregation was permitted to vote upon the subject by ballot, with the result that from the entire congregation there were just three persons who voted against the proposition.

This was certainly quite flattering to Rev. Mr. Gorrell, but not more so than his efforts in behalf of the church have merited, and he has the distinction of being the only pastor who has ever received three successive calls with so little opposition from the church. Rev. Mr. Gorrell is pleased with this manifestation of appreciation, and has consented to remain another year.

TO ATTEND A WEDDING

Rev. W. B. Campbell Will Perform the Marriage Ceremony for His Brother.

Rev. W. B. Campbell, of Calcutta, left this morning for West Sunbury, Pa., where on Wednesday he will attend the wedding of his brother, Dr. J. S. Campbell, who has just returned from a two-years' stay at Loveland, Cal., and Miss Laura Coulter, of West Sunbury. After the ceremony, which will be performed by Rev. Mr. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Campbell will come to Wellsville, where they will make their home.

Previous to his going to California, Dr. Campbell was a resident of Wellsville and is well known there.

IT DOES THE BUSINESS

News Review Advertisers Learn Quickly the Value of Small Ads.

"Please take that ad out of the paper," said a Northside lady, who had ordered a "For Rent" notice printed three times in the Evening News Review. "One notice did the business. Scarcely were the papers on the street before I began receiving applicants. I had the place rented in a few minutes. Callers kept coming, until to find peace and quiet, I was obliged to lock up the house and go away from home. Why, from the answers I have received to one five-line ad, I should judge everybody in town reads the News Review."

A West End man who wanted to buy a horse had a similar experience and is equally loud in his praise of the News Review as an advertising medium. Half an hour after the paper appeared, he got a bargain in horse-flesh with which he was perfectly satisfied. He had the advertisement discontinued, but men with horses for sale kept on coming for days, and perhaps are coming yet.

A quarter invested in the classified ad column of this paper will accomplish more for the advertiser than he could accomplish himself by days of effort. That is why the small ad column is lengthening every day.

Oschmann-Mountford.

Rev. J. G. Reinartz, of the Lutheran church today at noon will perform the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Elizabeth W. Oschmann and Mr. John T. Mountford, at the bride's home. The young couple are well known and popular.

Married at Carrollton.

Mrs. Adelaide Reed, who was Miss Adelaide Morris, a former society lady of this city, was united in marriage at noon today at Carrollton to Charles E. Lear, of Colorado Springs.

Misjudged.

"Ah," said Mrs. Oldcastle, who was being conducted through the magnificent picture gallery of the new neighbor, "this artist, I see, belongs to the impressionist school." "Oh, no," replied Mrs. Meatenard. "I seen him when Thomas bought the paintin'. He don't belong to any school, but has a little room all by himself in an old buildin' down near the river."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Genuine Grief.

"Poor man! He was so cut up yesterday. He got a telephone message that his wife's pet dog had been run over and killed." "Why should the death of a dog make him feel so bad?" "That wasn't it. He felt bad when he got home and found it was all a mistake."—Philadelphia Press.

Learned the Trick.

"Well," said Farmer St. "I guess I'm even with that fellow who bunkoed me last time I went to town." "How did you do it?" asked the listener.

"I sold him a gold brick, too—oleo-margarine for real country butter."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

His Stories.

"Bunkins takes life very easily." "But he is always telling hard luck stories." "Yes; that shows his shrewdness. If he put in all that time telling funny stories, people would say he was loafing."—Washington Star.

Maternity the Purpose Of a Woman's Life

By M. HUGUES LE ROUX, the French Lecturer

IN MOLIERE'S DAY WOMEN MARRIED ONLY FOR MONEY AND POSITION. THOSE WHO COULD NOT FIND SUITABLE HUSBANDS EITHER BECAME BACHELOR GIRLS OR RETIRED TO A CONVENT. THERE WAS THE INGENUE TYPE OF GIRL, MODEST, SHRINKING, DOMESTIC; BUT GRADUALLY THERE CAME INTO EXISTENCE THE "BONNE CAMARADE." MEN, HOWEVER, ARE LEARNING THAT IN MARRIAGE IT IS THE HOMEMAKER RATHER THAN THE GOOD FELLOW THAT MAKES THE BEST WIFE. IN A GOOD MARRIAGE IT IS NECESSARY THAT LOVE CONTINUE AFTER THE UNION, AND WE MUST ENDEAVOR TO MAKE SURE BEFORE MARRIAGE THAT SUCH TRUE LOVE REALLY EXISTS.

MATERNITY IS, AFTER ALL, THE PURPOSE OF A WOMAN'S LIFE, AND IF SHE DOES NOT MARRY SHE SHOULD AT LEAST BECOME A TEACHER IN FACT IF NOT IN TITLE. TEACHING IS MORAL MATERNITY. WOMEN WHO DO NOT MARRY BEFORE THEY ARE TWENTY MAKE A MISTAKE.

HER VIEW OF IT.

She Couldn't See Any Advantage In the "Mother's Guide."

"With the aid of this little book," said the canvasser as he produced a "Mother's Guide" for the inspection of his victim, "you will be able to bring up your children properly."

She took the book and weighed it thoughtfully in her hand. Then she caught it by the edge and brought it down on the palm of her hand, as if to see if it could be handled with ease and dexterity.

"Oh, I don't know," she said at last. "I can't see that it's any better for that purpose than a slipper."—Brooklyn Eagle.

Mean Suggestion.

"Why has Jones turned vegetarian?" "I suppose because it costs him nothing for board that way."

What Did She Mean?

"That foolish Clarence has proposed every week for the last six months, but the way I answered him the last time will stop him, I think," said Flora in a confidential chat.

"Yes, he told me he would have to quit," said Mazie. "He thought he observed a perceptible weakening."—Indianapolis News.

Beginning at Home.

Strange Effects of Extreme Cold.

Dr. Moss of the English polar expedition of 1875-77, among many other things, told of the strange effects of the extreme cold upon the candles they burned. The temperature was from 35 to 50 degrees below zero, and the doctor says he was considerably discouraged when upon looking at his candle he discovered that the flame "had all it could do to keep warm." It was so cold that the flame could not melt all of the tallow of the candle, but was forced to eat its way down, leaving a sort of skeleton candle standing. There was heat enough, however, to melt odd-shaped holes in the thin walls of tallow, the result being a beautiful lace-like cylinder of white, with a narrow tongue of yellow flame burning on the inside and sending out many streaks of light into the darkness.

Only One Clean Thing.

When Jones was at Oxford, he was a most excellent fellow, and had only one enemy—soap. He was called Dirty Jones. One day the wag Brown went into his rooms and remonstrating with him on the untidy, slovenly and dirty state of everything said:

"Upon my word, Dirty, it's too bad. The only clean thing in your room is the towel!"

Forgiven.

Gladys—Edith says you are only making love to me out of revenge because she refused you.
